RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 406

Approved September 8, 1971

WHEREAS, Maria Alves, owner of property located at 88 Pike Street, Providence, Rhode Island has applied for a property rehabilitation grant, through the Department of Planning and Urban Development, and

WHEREAS, Maria Alves, has owned and occupied the said property since her purchase thereof in 1923; the proposed acquisition of her property for redevelopment purposes would create a serious hardship upon this seventy eight year old widow, and to members of her family, who occupy an apartment at that location,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Providence Redevelopment Agency is hereby ordered to refrain from acquiring the subject property being Lot 171, as set out and delineated on City Assessor's Plat 18, and the improvements thereon, said property.

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 407

Approved September 8, 1971

WHEREAS, Frank Rao, late the First President of the City Council has recently passed away following a notable political career, commencing with his first elected office that of School Committeeman in 1922, and

WHEREAS, a native of Olivieri, Province of Messina, Sicily, brought to the United States by his parents, at the age of six, became an American citizen, following voluntary enlistment in the United States Army at the beginning of World War I, and

WHEREAS, an aggressive and resourceful man, his varied business careers prospered by virtue of his native ingenuity and his insatiable desire to improve his lot, and in so doing gained many friends of affluence in the political, business and social fields, and

WHEREAS, a leader in the Eagle Park Community, he, with his devoted wife Eva, worked assiduously for social and economic betterment, while attending to their religious responsibility,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That in honoring the memory of Frank Rao, an avid advocate of the principals of the Democratic Party, to which he devoted, much of his adult life, a most respected citizen, an exemplary husband, father and citizen, His Honor Mayor Joseph A. Doorley, Jr., joins the City Council in tribute to the man who so appreciated the beneficence of the United States of America that he during his lifetime constantly paid it homage by his model conduct.

Councilman Heavette

Dear Sir,

1888

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the proposed amendment to the charter of the City of New York, and in reply to inform you that the same has been referred to the Committee on the subject, and that they are now considering the same.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
Councilman Heavette

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 409

Approved September 8, 1971

WHEREAS, Almighty God, in His Divine Wisdom has called unto himself the Soul of his Excellency the Most Reverend Russell J. McVinney, D. D., late Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese of Providence, on the tenth day of August in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy One, and

WHEREAS, Dearly beloved as a priest, humble in his beginning and humble unto his passing, he leaves this life with a most impressive Bishopric of charity and humility which served as a pattern of Christian behavior, and

WHEREAS, During his stewardship as spiritual head of this Diocese, Bishop McVinney innovated reforms designed to render spiritual guidance and understanding toward all faiths, devoid of malice and filled with love of his fellowman, never at the expense of minimizing the dignity of his Church which enjoyed an exalted reputation during His Bishopric, and

WHEREAS, His Excellency, whose keen interest in promulgation of the Roman Catholic faith, motivated a broad program of building in the true spirit of religious belief, accordingly many are monuments attesting to his nearly one quarter of a century as the titular head of Roman-Catholicism in the Diocese of Providence, unfortunately he will not celebrate the completion of the restoration of the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul and its 100th Anniversary next year, and

WHEREAS, The late lamented Prelate enjoyed excellent rapport with clergymen of all faiths since he was a genial, though a conservative, man of God whose point of view was well expressed and clearly defined such as his preachings wherein he strongly advocated keeping spiritual conscious devotion to Almighty God.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That it is with sincere sadness that His Honor Mayor Joseph A. Doorley, Jr., and this City Council mark the death of His Excellency the Most Reverend Russell J. McVinney D. D., Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese of Providence with the Adoption of this Resolution, passed by a moment of silent prayer for the eternal repose of his soul.
