MAYNARD & NOYES' WRITING INK.

The manufacture of this Ink was commenced in 1816, and the quality has now been tested by the public for more than forty years. During this time it has been constantly increasing in public favor and patronage, and is now the leading article in the country. Those who may be ignorant of its superiority and reputation, are invited to read the following testimonials, and to make trial of it themselves. When the best judges, after using it more than twenty-five years, express themselves in one manner concerning its superior excellence, it is quite evident that no one need be troubled with bad ink.

Bowdoin School, Boston, Jan. 7, 1857.

Messrs. MAYNARD & NOYES: I have used your Ink in the Writing Department of this School the past thirty years, and take pleasure in renewing my testimonial of its superior quality. It flows freely from the pen, its color is brilliant and permanent, and it combines all the necessary and desirable qualities of good ink.

JAMES ROBINSON, Writing Master.

Boston, January 10, 1848.

Messrs. MAYNARD & NOYES: Gentlemen—It is now, I believe, more than twenty years since the School Committee passed an order for using your Black Writing Ink in the City Schools. I have used it during that period, and deem it a FIRST-RATE ARTICLE, and cheerfully recommend it to others. It FLOWS FREELY from the pen, and increases in blackness after being committed to paper, and the color is DURABLE. I know of no ink equal to yours, and I have tried many kinds, both English and American.

P. MACKINTOSH, jr.
Principal of Writing Dept Hancock School.

Office of Merchants' Ins. Co. Boston, Jan. 2, 1856.

Messrs. MAYNARD & NOYES: Gentlemen—I have used your Writing Ink generally for the last twenty-five years. In 1817 I renewed my certificate of its excellence, and having continued its use ever since, to my entire satisfaction, my opinion is confirmed as to its superiority. IT FLOWS FREELY FROM THE PEN, AND IS, IN ALL RESPECTS, THE BEST INK I HAVE EVER USED.

GEORGE HOMER, Secretary.

Registry of Deeds Boston.

Messrs. MAYNARD & NOYES: I have made use of your Writing Ink for the Recording of Deeds, &c. the past TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, and take pleasure in renewing my testimonial of its superiority. From the appearance of the records in my office, I consider it particularly adapted for all purposes where PERMANENCY OF COLOR is requisite or desirable, as my oldest records prove it to be UNALTERABLY BLACK.

H. ALLINE, Register of Deeds.

COPYING INK.

This Ink gives a copy as distinct and perfect as the original, and combines all the properties of our Writing Ink. This quality particularly adapts it to Counting house use, as it answers all the purposes for which a writing liquid is wanted. Also,

BLUE, RED AND CARMINE INKS.

---

WITH this issue we present the nineteenth No. of the PROV-
DENCE DIRECTORY, which was commenced in 1824 by the present publisher, at a time when the population of the town was not one quarter of what it now is. For many years the work was issued but once in three years. For the last six years it has been issued annually, as this is found absolutely necessary, from the many changes continually occurring in our population. Although the gain in our population the last year has not been large, it has been something, but the changes in business have been many thousands.
When the work was commenced, the number of streets, lanes, etc., was but about one hundred and fifty. It will be seen that they now amount to about six hundred.

It has been our aim to make such improvements in the work, from time to time, as experience has suggested, but we have not fully satisfied ourselves. Should we continue the work, (which from the nature of things we cannot expect to do for many years more) we hope still further to improve it. With our thanks for the patronage received, we will only further add, that there is ample room for an increase.

HISTORICAL.*MAJOR ANDRE.

A friend has put into our hands, an ancient pamphlet, entitled, "Proceedings of a Board of General Officers, held by order of his Excellency General WASHINGTON, Commander in Chief of the Army of the United States of America, respecting Major JOHN ANDRE, Adjutant General of the British Army, Sent. 29. 1780. To which are appended, the several Letters which passed to and from New-York on the occasion. Published by order of Congress."

The fate of this accomplished but unfortunate officer was deeply regretted, even by many of the firm friends of liberty, and it is said especially by General WASHINGTON, at the time these events occurred. We give place to the proceedings at the Trial, and the accompanying Correspondence, as interesting documents, and as many of our readers may never have met with them. Could the lamented ANDRE have been exchanged for the Traitor BENEDICT ARNOLD, who by his base treachery earned for himself an "immortality of infamy," many on both sides of the Atlantic, no doubt, would have greatly rejoiced. The remains of Major Andre were disinterred a few years since, under the direction of the British Consul, and removed to England, where they were re-interred, and a monument erected to his memory.

Robinson's House, in the Highlands, Sept. 25, 1780.

SIR—I have the honor to inform Congress, that I arrived here yesterday about 12 o'clock, on my return from Hartford. Some hours previous to my arrival Major General Arnold went from his quarters, which were this place, and, as it was supposed, over the river to the garrison at West Point; whither I proceeded myself, in order to visit the post. I found General Arnold had not been there during the day, and on my return to his quarters he was still absent. In the mean time, a packet had arrived from Lieut. Col. Jameson, announcing the capture of a John Anderson, who was endeavoring to go to New-York, with several interesting and important papers, all in the hand writing of General Arnold. This was also accompanied with a letter from the prisoner, avowing himself to be Major John Andre, Adjutant General to the British army, relating the manner of his capture, and endeavoring to shew that he did not come under the description of a spy. From these several circumstances, and information that the General seemed to be thrown into some degree of agitation, on receiving a letter a little time before he went from his quarters, I was led to conclude immediately that he had heard of Major Andre's captivity, and that he would, if possible, escape to the enemy, and accordingly took such measures as appeared the most probable to apprehend him. But he had remarked in a barge, and proceeded down the river, under a flag, to the Vulture ship of war, which lay some miles below Stony and Verplanck's Points. He wrote to me a letter after he got on board. Major Andre is not arrived yet, but I hope he is secure, and that he will be here to-day. I have been and am taking precautions, which I trust will prove effectual to prevent the important consequences which this conduct on the part of Gen. Arnold, was intended to produce. I do not know the party that took Major Andre, but it is said that it consisted only of a few militia, who acted in such a manner upon the occasion as does them the highest honor, and proves them to be men of great virtue. As soon as I know their names, I shall take pleasure in transmitting them to Congress.

PARAMUS, Oct. 7, 1780.

SIR—I have the honor to enclose Congress a copy of the proceedings of a Board of General Officers in the case of Major Andre, Adjutant General to the British army. This officer was executed, in pursuance of the opinion of the Board, on Monday the 2d inst. at 12 o'clock, at our late camp at Tappan. Besides the proceedings, I transmit copies of sundry letters respecting the matter, which are all that passed on the subject, not included in the proceedings.

I have now the pleasure to communicate the names of the three persons who captured Major Andre, and who refused to release him, notwithstanding the most earnest importunities, and assurances of a liberal reward, on his part. Their names are, JOHN PAULDING, DAVID WILLIAMS and ISAAC VAN WERT.

PROCEEDINGS

OF A

BOARD OF GENERAL OFFICERS,

Held by order of his Excellency General WASHINGTON, Commander in Chief of the Army of the United States of America, respecting Major ANDRE, Adjutant General of the British Army, Sept. 29, 1780, at Tappan, in the State of New-York.

PRESENT,

Major General GREENE, President.

Major General Lord Sterling,	Brigadier General Clinton,
Major General St. Clair,	Brigadier General Knox,
Major General the Marquis de la Fayette,	Brigadier General Glover,
Major General Howe,	Brigadier General Patterson,
Major General the Baron de Steuben,	Brigadier General Hand,
Brigadier General PERSONS,	Brigadier General Huntington,
	Brigadier General Starke.

JOHN LAWRENCE, Judge Advocate General.

Major Andre, Adjutant General to the British army, was brought before the Board, and the following letter from General Washington, to the Board, dated Head Quarters, Tappan, Sept. 29, 1780, was laid before them, and read.

"GENTLEMEN,

Major Andre, Adjutant General to the British army, will be brought before you for your examination. He came within our lines in the night, on an interview with Major General Arnold, and in an assumed character; and was taken within our lines, in a disguised habit, with a pass under a feigned name, and with the enclosed papers concealed upon him. After a careful examination, you will be pleased as speedily as possible, to report a precise state of his case, together with your opinion of the light in which he ought to be considered, and the punishment that ought to be inflicted. The Judge Advocate will attend to assist in the examination, who has sundry other papers, relative to this matter, which he will lay before the Board.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,

Your most obedient and humble servant,

G. WASHINGTON."

The Board of General Officers convened at Tappan.

The names of the officers composing the Board were read to Major Andre, and on his being asked whether he confessed the matters contained in the letter from his Excellency General Washington to the Board, or denied them, he said, in addition to his letter to General Washington, dated Salem, the 24th of Sept. 1780, which was read to the Board, and acknowledged by Major Andre to have been written by him, which letter is as follows:

"SALEM, Sept. 24, 1780.

SIR,

What I have as yet said concerning myself, was in the justifiable attempt to be extricated; I am too little accustomed to duplicity to have succeeded.

I beg your Excellency will be persuaded, that no alteration in the temper of my mind, or apprehension for my safety, induces me to take the step of addressing you, but that it is to secure myself from an imputation of having assumed a mean character for treacherous purposes or self-interest; a conduct incompatible with the principles that actuated me, as well as with my condition in life.

It is to vindicate my fame that I speak, and not to solicit security. The person in your possession is Major John Andre, Adjutant General to the British army.

The influence of one commander in the army of his adversary is an advantage taken in war. A correspondence for this purpose I held; as confidential (in the present instance) with his Excellency Sir Henry Clinton.

To favor it, I agreed to meet, upon ground not within posts of either army, a person who was to give me intelligence; I came up in the Vulture man of war for this effect, and was fetched by a boat from the shore to the beach: Being there, I was told that the approach of day would prevent my return, and that I must be concealed until the next night. I was in my regimentals, and had fairly risked my person.

Against my stipulation, my intention, and without my knowledge beforehand, I was conducted within one of your posts. Your Excellency may conceive my sensation on this occasion, and will imagine how much more I must have been affected by a refusal to re-conduct me back the next night as I had been brought. Thus become a prisoner, I had to concert my escape. I quitted my uniform, and was passed another way in the night, without the American posts, to neutral ground, and informed I was beyond all armed parties, and left to press for New-York. I was taken at Tarrytown, by some volunteers.

Thus, as I have had the honor to relate, was I betrayed (being Adjutant General of the British army) into the vile condition of an enemy in disguise, within your posts.

Having avowed myself a British officer, I have nothing to reveal but what relates to myself, which is true, on the honor of an officer and a gentleman.

The request I have to make to your Excellency, and I am conscious I address myself well, is, that in any rigor policy may dictate, a decency of conduct towards me may mark, that, though unfortunate, I am branded with nothing dishonorable; as no motive could be mine but the service of my King, and as I was involuntarily an impostor.

Another request is, that I may be permitted to write an open letter to Sir Henry Clinton, and another to a friend, for clothes and linen.

I take the liberty to mention the condition of some gentlemen at Charlestown, who being either on parole or under protection, were engaged in a conspiracy against us. Though their situation is not similar, they are objects who may be set in exchange for me, or are persons whom the treatment I receive might affect.

It is no less, Sir, in a confidence in the generosity of your mind, than on account of your superior station, that I have chosen to importune you with this letter.

I have the honor to be, with great respect, Sir,

Your Excellency's most obedient and most humble servant,
JOHN ANDRE, Adjutant General.

His Excellency General WASHINGTON, &c. &c. &c."

That he came on shore from the Vulture sloop of war in the night of the 21st of Sept. inst. somewhere under the Havrestraw mountain. That the boat he came on shore in carried no flag, and that he had on a surtout coat over his regimentals, and that he wore his surtout coat when he was taken. That he met Gen. Arnold on the shore, and had an interview with him there. He also said, that when he left the Vulture sloop of war, it was understood he was to return that night; but it was then doubted, and if he could not return he was promised to be concealed on shore, in a place of safety, until the next night, when he was to return in the same manner he came on shore; and when the next day came, he was solicitous to get back, and made enquiries in the course of the day, how he should return, when he was informed he could not return that way, and he must take the route he did afterwards. He also said that the first notice he had of his being within any of our posts was, being challenged by the sentry, which was the first night he was on shore. He also said, that the evening of the 22d of Sept. inst. he passed King's Ferry, between our posts of Stony and Verplanck's Points, in the dress he is at present in, and which he said was not his regimentals, and which dress he procured after he landed from the Vulture, and when he was within our posts, and that he was proceeding to New-York, but was taken on his way, at Tarry Town, as he mentioned in his letter, on Saturday the 23d of Sept. inst. about 9 o'clock in the morning.

The following papers were laid before the Board, and shown to Major Andre, who confessed to the Board that they were found on him when he was taken, and said they were concealed in his boots, except the pass:

A pass from General Arnold to John Anderson, which name, Major Andre acknowledged he assumed.

Artillery orders, Sept. 5, 1780.

Estimate of the force at West Point and its dependencies, Sept. 1780.

Estimate of men to man the works at West Point, &c.

Return of ordnance at West Point, Sept. 1780.

Remarks on works at West Point.

Copy of a state of matters laid before a Council of War, by his Excellency General Washington, held the 6th of Sept. 1780.

A letter signed John Anderson, dated Sept. 7, 1780, to Colonel Sheldon,* was also laid before the Board, and shown to Major Andre, which he acknowledged to have been written by him, and is as follows:

"NEW-YORK, the 7th Sept. 1780.

SIR,

I am told my name is made known to you, and that I may hope your indulgence in permitting me to meet a friend near your out-posts. I will endeavor to obtain permission to go out with a flag, which will be sent to Dobbs's Ferry on Monday next, the * Lest it should be supposed that Col. Sheldon, to whom the above letter is addressed, was privy to the plot carrying on by General Arnold, it is to be observed, that the letter was found among Arnold's papers, and had been transmitted by Col. Sheldon, who, it appears from a letter of the 9th of Sept. to Arnold, which enclosed it, had never heard of John Anderson before. Arnold, in his answer on the 10th, acknowledged he had not communicated it to him, though he had informed him that he expected a person would come from New-York, for the purpose of bringing him intelligence.

11th, at twelve o'clock, when I shall be happy to meet Mr. G.* Should I not be allowed to go, the officer who is to command the escort, between whom and myself no distinction need be made, can speak on the affair.

Let me entreat you, Sir, to favor a matter so interesting to the parties concerned, and which is of so private a nature, that the public on neither side can be injured by it.

I shall be happy, on my part, in doing any act of kindness to you in a family or property concern of a similar nature.

I trust I shall not be detanied, but should any old grudge be a cause for it, I shall rather risk that, than neglect the business in question, or assume a mysterious character to carry on an innocent affair, and as friends have advised, get to your lines by stealth.

I am, Sir, with all regard,

Your most obedient humble servant,

JOHN ANDERSON.

Col. SHELDON."

Major Andre observed, that this letter could be of no force in the case in question, as it was written in New-York, when he was under the orders of General Clinton; but that it tended to prove, that it was not his intention to come within our lines.

The Board having interrogated Major Andre about his conception of his coming on shore under the sanction of a flag, he said, that it was impossible for him to suppose he came on shore under that sanction; and added, that if he came on shore under that sanction, he certainly might have returned under it.

Major Andre having acknowledged the preceding facts, and being asked whether he had any thing to say respecting them, answered, that he left them to operate with the Board.

The examination of Major Andre being concluded, he was remanded into custody.

The following letters were laid before the Board, and read:—Benedict Arnold's letter to General Washington, dated Sept. 25, 1780. Col. Robinson's letter to General Washington, dated Sept. 25, 1780; and General Clinton's letter, dated Sept. 26, 1780 (enclosing a letter of the same date from Benedict Arnold) to General Washington.

SIR,

The heart which is conscious of its own rectitude cannot attempt to palliate a step which the world may censure as wrong. I have ever acted from a principle of love to my country, since the commencement of the present unhappy contest between Great Britain and the Colonies. The same principle of love to my country actuates my present conduct, however it may appear inconsistent to the world, who very seldom judge right of any man's actions.

* It appears by the same letter, that Arnold had written to Mr. Anderson, under the signature of Gustavus. His words are, "I was obliged to write with great caution to him; my letter was signed Gustavus, to prevent any discovery, in case it fell into the hands of the enemy."

I have no favor to ask for myself. I have too often experienced the ingratitude of my country to attempt it: but from the known humanity of your Excellency, I am induced to ask your protection for Mrs. Arnold, from every insult and injury that the mistaken vengeance of my country may expose her to. It ought to fall only on me; she is as good and as innocent as an angel, and is incapable of doing wrong. I beg she may be permitted to return to her friends in Philadelphia, or to come to me, as she may choose. From your Excellency I have no fears on her account, but she may suffer from the mistaken fury of the country.

I have to request that the enclosed letter may be delivered to Mrs. Arnold, and she permitted to write to me.

I have also to ask, that my clothes and baggage, which are of little consequence, may be sent to me; if required, their value shall be paid in money.

I have the honor to be, with great regard and esteem,

Your Excellency's most obedient humble servant,

B. ARNOLD.

His Excellency Gen. WASHINGTON."

N. B. In justice to the gentlemen of my family, Col. Varrick and Major Franks, I think myself in honor bound to declare, that they, as well as Joshua Smith, Esq. (who I know is suspected) are totally ignorant of any transactions of mine, that they had reason to believe were injurious to the public."

— "Vulture, off Sinsinck, Sept. 25, 1780.

SIR,

I am this moment informed, that Major Andre, Adjutant General of his Majesty's army in America, is detained as a prisoner by the army under your command. It is therefore incumbent on me to inform you of the manner of his falling into your hands. He went up with a flag, at the request of General Arnold, on public business with him, and had his permit to return by land to New-York. Under these circumstances, Major Andre cannot be detained by you, without the greatest violation of flags, and contrary to the custom and usage of all nations; and as I imagine you will see this matter in the same point of view as I do, I must desire you will order him to be set at liberty, and allowed to return immediately. Every step Major Andre took was by the advice and direction of General Arnold, even that of taking a feigned name, and of course not liable to censure for it.

I am, Sir, not forgetting our former acquaintance,

Your very humble servant,

REV. ROBINSON, Col. Loyal Americ.

"NEW-YORK, Sept. 26, 1780.

SIR,

Being informed that the King's Adjutant General in America has been stopt, under Major General Arnold's passports, and is detained a prisoner in your Excellency's army, I have the honor to inform you, Sir, that I permitted Major Andre to go to Major General Arnold, at the particular request of that general officer. You will perceive, Sir, by the enclosed paper, that a flag of truce was sent to receive Major Andre, and passports granted for his return; I therefore can have no doubt but your Excellency will immediately direct, that this officer has permission to return to my order, at New-York.

I have the honor to be your Excellency's
most obedient and most humble servant,

H. CLINTON.

"NEW-YORK, Sept. 26, 1780.

SIR,

In answer to your Excellency's message, respecting your Adjutant General, Major Andre, and desiring my idea of the reasons why he is detained, being under my passports, I have the honor to inform you, Sir, that I apprehend a few hours must return Major Andre to your Excellency's orders; as that officer is assuredly under the protection of a flag of truce, sent by me to him, for the purpose of a conversation which I requested to hold with him relating to myself, and which I wished to communicate through that officer to your Excellency.

I commanded at the time at West Point, had an undoubted right to send my flag of truce for Major Andre, who came to me under that protection; and having held my conversation with him, I delivered him confidential papers, in my own hand writing, to deliver to your Excellency. Thinking it much proper he should return by land, I directed him to make use of the feigned name of John Anderson, under which he had by my direction come on shore, and gave him my passports to go to the White Plains, on his way to New-York. This officer therefore cannot fail of being immediately sent to New-York, as he was invited to a conversation with me, for which I sent him a flag of truce, and finally gave him passports for his safe return to your Excellency; all which I had then a right to do, being in the actual service of America, under the orders of General Washington, and commanding General at West Point and its dependencies.

I have the honor to be your Excellency's
most obedient and very humble servant,

B. ARNOLD.

His Excellency Sir HENRY CLINTON."

The Board having considered the letter from his Excellency General Washington respecting Major Andre, Adjutant General to the British army, the confession of Major Andre, and the papers produced to them, REPORT to his Excellency the Commander in Chief the following facts, which appear to them relative to Major Andre.

1st. That he came on shore from the Vulture sloop of war, in the night of the 21st of September inst. on an interview with Gen. Arnold, in a private and secret manner.

2dly. That he changed his dress within our lines, and under a feigned name, and in a disguised habit, passed our works at Stony and Verplanck's Points, the evening of the 22d of Sept. inst. and was taken the morning of the 23d of September instant, at Tarrytown, in a disguised habit, being then on his way to New-York, and, when taken, he had in his possession several papers, which contained intelligence for the enemy.

The Board having maturely considered these facts, DO ALSO REPORT to his Excellency General Washington, That Major Andre, Adjutant General to the British army, ought to be considered as a spy from the enemy; and that, agreeable to the law and usage of nations, it is their opinion, he ought to suffer death.

APPENDIX.

Copy of a letter from Major Andre, Adjutant General, to Sir Henry Clinton, K. B., &c. &c.

SIR,

Your Excellency's doubtless already apprized of the manner in which I was taken, and possibly of the serious light in which my conduct is considered, and the rigorous determination that is impending.

Under these circumstances, I have obtained Gen. Washington's permission to send you this letter; the object of which is, to remove from your breast any suspicion, that I could imagine I was bound by your Excellency's orders to expose myself to what has happened. The events of coming within an enemy's posts, and of changing my dress, which led me to my present situation, were contrary to my own intentions, as they were to your orders; and the circuitous rout, which I took to return, was imposed (perhaps unavoidably) without alternative upon me.

I am perfectly tranquil in mind, and prepared for any fate, to which an honest zeal for my King's service may have devoted me.

In addressing myself to your Excellency on this occasion, the force of all my obligations to you, and of the attachment and gratitude I bear you, recurs to me. With all the warmth of my heart, I give you thanks for your Excellency's profuse kindness to me; and I send you my most earnest wishes for your welfare, which a faithful, affectionate and respectful attendant can frame.

I have a mother and three sisters, to whom the value of my commission would be an object, as the loss of Grenada has much affected their income. It is needless to be more explicit on this subject; I am persuaded of your Excellency's goodness.

I receive the greatest attention from his Excellency General Washington, and from every person under whose charge I happen to be placed.

I have the honor to be, with the most respectful attachment,
Your Excellency's most obedient and most humble servant,

JOHN ANDRE, Adjutant General.
(Addressed) His Excellency General Sir
HENRY CLINTON, K. B., &c. &c. &c.

"TAPPAN, Sept. 29, 1780.

Copy of a letter from his Excellency General Washington to his Excellency General Sir Henry Clinton.

"Head Quarters, Sept. 30, 1780.

SIR,

In answer to your Excellency's letter of the 26th inst. which I had the honor to receive, I am to inform you that Major Andre was taken under such circumstances as would have justified the most summary proceedings against him. I determined, however, to refer his case to the examination and decision of a Board of General Officers, who have reported, on his free and voluntary confession and letters, "That he came on shore from the Vulture sloop of war in the night of the 21st of Sept. inst.," &c. &c. as in the report of the Board of General Officers.

From these proceedings, it is evident Major Andre was employed in the execution of measures very foreign to the objects of flags of truce, and such as they were never meant to authorize or countenance, in the most distant degree; and this gentleman confessed with the greatest candor, in the course of his examination, "That it was impossible for him to suppose he came on shore under the sanction of a flag."

I have the honor to be your Excellency's
most obedient and most humble servant,

G. WASHINGTON.

(Addressed) His Excellency Sir HENRY CLINTON."

In this letter Major Andre's of the 29th of Sept. to Sir Henry Clinton was transmitted.

"New-York, Sept. 29, 1780.

SIR,

Persuaded that you are inclined rather to promote than prevent the civilities and acts of humanity, which the rules of war permit between civilized nations, I find no difficulty in representing to you, that several letters and messages sent from hence have been disregarded, are unanswered, and the flags of truce that carried them detained. As I have ever treated all flags of truce with civility and respect, I have a right to hope that you will order my complaint to be immediately redressed.

Major Andre, who visited an officer commanding in a district at his own desire, and acted in every circumstance agreeable to his direction, I find is detained a prisoner; my friendship for him leads me to fear he may suffer some inconvenience for want of necessaries; I wish to be allowed to send him a few, and shall take it as a favor if you will be pleased to permit his servant to deliver them. In Sir Henry Clinton's absence it becomes a part of my duty to make this representation and request.

I am, Sir, your Excellency's most obedient humble servant,

"TAPPAN, Sept. 30, 1780.

SIR,

I have just received your letter of the 29th. Any delay which may have attended your flags has proceeded from accident, and the peculiar circumstances of the occasion—not from intentional neglect or violation. The letter that admitted of an answer has received one as early as it could be given with propriety, transmitted by a flag this morning. As to messages, I am uninformed of any that have been sent.

The necessaries for Major Andre will be delivered to him agreeable to your request.

I am, Sir, your most obedient humble servant,

G. WASHINGTON.

His Excellency Lt. Gen. ROBERTSON, New-York."

"NEW-YORK, Sept. 30, 1780.

SIR,

From your Excellency's letter of this date, I am persuaded the Board of General Officers to whom you referred the case of Major Andre, can't have been rightly informed of all the circumstances on which a judgment ought to be formed. I think it of the highest moment to humanity, that your Excellency should be perfectly apprized of the state of this matter, before you proceed to put that judgment in execution.

For this reason, I shall send his Excellency Lieut. Gen. Robertson, and two other gentlemen, to give you a true state of facts, and to declare to you my sentiments and resolutions. They will set out to-morrow, as early as the wind and tide will permit, and wait near Dobbs's Ferry for your permission and safe conduct, to meet your Excellency, or such persons as you may appoint, to converse with them on this subject.

I have the honor to be your Excellency's
most obedient and most humble servant,

H. CLINTON.

P. S. The Hon. Andrew Elliot, Esq., Lieut. Governor, and the Hon. William Smith, Chief Justice of this province, will attend his Excellency Lieut. General Robertson.

Lieut. General Robertson, Mr. Elliot, and Mr. Smith, came up in a flag vessel to Dobbs' Ferry, agreeable to the above letter. The two last were not suffered to land. Gen. Robertson was permitted to come on shore, and was met by Major General Greene, who verbally reported, that Gen. Robertson mentioned to him, in substance, what is contained in his letter of the 2d of October to General Washington.

"NEW-YORK, Oct. 1, 1780.

SIR,

I take this opportunity to inform your Excellency, that I consider myself no longer acting under the commission of Congress. Their last to me being among my papers at West Point, you, Sir, will make such use of as you may think proper.

At the same time, I beg leave to assure your Excellency, that my attachment to the true interest of my country is invariable, and that I am actuated by the SAME PRINCIPLE which has ever been the GOVERNING RULE of my conduct, in this unhappy contest.

I have the honor be, very respectfully,

Your Excellency's most obedient humble servant,

B. ARNOLD.

"Greyhound Schooner, Flag of Truce, Dobbs's Ferry, Oct. 2, 1780.

SIR,

A note I have from Gen. Greene leaves me in doubt if his memory has served him, to relate to you, with exactness, the substance of the conversation that had passed between him and myself on the subject of Major Andre. In an affair of so much consequence to my friend, to the two armies, and humanity, I would leave no possibility of a misunderstanding, and therefore take the liberty to put in writing the substance of what I said to General Greene.

I offered to prove, by the evidence of Col. Robinson and the officers of the Vulture, that Major Andre went on shore at Gen. Arnold's desire, in a boat sent for him with a flag of truce; that he not only came ashore with the knowledge, and under the protection of the General who commanded in the district, but that he took no step, while on shore, but by direction of Gen. Arnold, as will appear by the enclosed letter from him to your Excellency.

Under these circumstances I could not, and hoped you would not, consider Major Andre as a spy, for any improper phrase in his letter to you.

The facts he relates correspond with the evidence I offer; but he admits a conclusion that does not follow. The change of clothes and name was ordered by Gen. Arnold, under whose direction he necessarily was, while within his command. As Gen. Greene and I did not agree in opinion, I wished that disinterested gentlemen, of knowledge of the law of war and nations, might be asked their opinion on the subject, and mentioned Monsieur Knyphausen and Gen. Rochambeau.

I related that a Capt. Robinson had been delivered to Sir Henry Clinton as a spy, and undoubtedly was such; but that it being signified to him that you were desirous that this man should be exchanged, he had ordered him to be exchanged.

I wished that an intercourse of such civilities, as the rules of war admit of, might take off many of its horrors. I admitted that Major Andre had a great share of Sir Henry Clinton's esteem, and that he would be infinitely obliged by his liberation; and that if he was permitted to return with me, I would engage to have any person you would be pleased to name set at liberty.

I added, that Sir Henry Clinton had never put to death any person for a breach of the rules of war, though he had, and now has many in his power. Under the present circumstances, much good may arise from humanity; much ill from the want of it; if that could give any weight, I beg leave to add, that your favorable treatment of Major Andre will be a favor I should ever be intent to return to any you hold dear.

My memory does not retain, with the exactness I could wish, the words of the letter which General Greene shewed me from Major Andre to your Excellency. For Sir Henry Clinton's satisfaction, I beg you will order a copy of it to be sent to me at New-York.

I have the honor to be your Excellency's
most obedient and most humble servant,
JAMES ROBERTSON.

"NEW-YORK, Oct. 1. 1780.

SIR,

The polite attention shown by your Excellency, and the gentlemen of your family, to Mrs. Arnold, when in distress, demand my grateful acknowledgments and thanks, which I beg leave to present. From your Excellency's letter to Sir H. Clinton, I find a Board of General Officers have given it as their opinion, that Major Andre comes under the description of a spy. My good opinion of the candor and justice of those gentlemen leads me to believe, that if they had been made fully acquainted with every circumstance respecting Major Andre, that they would by no means have considered him in the light of a spy, or even of a prisoner. In justice to him, I think it my duty to declare, that he came from on board the Vulture at my particular request, by a flag sent on purpose for him by Joshua Smith, Esq., who had permission to go to Dobbs's Ferry to carry letters, and for other purposes not mentioned, and to return. This was done as a blind to the spy boats. Mr. Smith at the same time had my private directions to go on board the Vulture, and bring on shore Col. Robinson, or Mr. John Anderson, which was the name I had requested Major Andre to assume. At the same time I desired Mr. Smith to inform him, that he should have my protection and a safe passport to return in the same boat, as soon as our business was completed. As several accidents intervened to prevent his being sent on board, I gave him my passport to return by land. Major Andre came on shore in his uniform, (without disguise) which with much reluctance, at my particular and pressing instance, he exchanged for another coat. I furnished him with a horse and saddle, and pointed out the route by which he was to return. And as commanding officer in the department, I had an undoubted right to transact all these matters; which, if wrong, Major Andre ought by no means to suffer for them.

But if, after this just and candid representation of Major Andre's case, the Board of General Officers adhere to their former opinion,

I shall suppose it dictated by passion and resentment; and if that gentleman should suffer the severity of their sentence, I shall think myself bound, by every tie of duty and honor, to retaliate on such unhappy persons of your army as may fall within my power, that the respect due to flags, and to the law of nations, may be better understood and observed.

I have further to observe, that forty of the principal inhabitants of South-Carolina have justly forfeited their lives, which have hitherto been spared by the clemency of his Excellency Sir Henry Clinton, who cannot, in justice, extend his mercy to them any longer, if Major Andre suffers; which, in all probability, will open a scene of blood, at which humanity will revolt.

Suffer me to entreat your Excellency, for your own, and the honor of humanity, and the love you have of justice, that you suffer not an unjust sentence to touch the life of Major Andre.

But if this warning should be disregarded, and he suffer, I call heaven and earth to witness, that your Excellency will be justly answerable for the torrent of blood that may be spilt in consequence.

I have the honor to be, with due respect, your Excellency's most obedient and very humble servant,

B. ARNOLD.

"TAPPAN, Oct. 1, 1780.

SIR,

Buoy'd above the terror of death, by the consciousness of a life devoted to honorable pursuits, and stained with no action that can give me remorse, I trust that the request I make to your Excellency, at this serious period, and which is to soften my last moments, will not be rejected.

Sympathy towards a soldier will surely induce your Excellency, and a military tribunal, to adopt the mode of my death to the feelings of a man of honor.

Let me hope, Sir, that if aught in my character impresses you with esteem towards me, if aught in my misfortunes marks me as the victim of policy and not of resentment, I shall experience the operation of these feelings in your breast, by being informed that I am not to die on a gibbet.

I have the honor to be your Excellency's
most obedient and most humble servant,
JOHN ANDRE, Adj. Gen. to the British Army.

The time which elapsed between the capture of Major Andre, which was on the morning of the 23d of Sept., and his execution, which did not take place till 12 o'clock on the 3d of October;—the mode of trying him;—his letter to Sir Henry Clinton, K. B., on the 29th of Sept., in which he said, "I receive the greatest attention from his Excellency General Washington, and from every person under whose charge I happen to be placed;"—not to mention many other acknowledgments which he made of the good treatment he ceived;—must evince, that the proceedings against him were not guided by passion or resentment. The practice and usage of war were against his request, and made the indulgence he solicited, circumstanced as he was, inadmissible.

CHARLES THOMSON, Sec'y.

TALLEYRAND AND ARNOLD.

There was a day when Talleyrand arrived at Havre, hot from Paris. It was in the darkest hour of the French revolution. Pursued by the blood-hounds of the Reign of Terror, stripped of every wreck of property or power, Talleyrand secured a passage to America in a ship about to sail. He was going a beggar and a wanderer to a strange land, to earn his bread by daily labor.

'Is there an American staying at your house?' he asked of the landlord of his hotel. 'I am bound to cross the water, and would like a letter to some person of influence in the new world.'

The landlord hesitated a moment, and then said:

'Here is a gentleman up stairs, either from America or Britain; whether an American or an Englishman I cannot tell.'

He pointed the way, and Talleyrand, who in his life was Bishop, Prince and Prime Minister, ascended the stairs. A miserable suppliant, he stood before the stranger's door, knocked and entered.

In a far corner of a dimly-lighted room, sat a gentleman of some fifty years, with his arms folded, and his head bowed on his breast. From a window directly opposite, a flood of light poured over his forehead. His eyes looked from beneath the downcast brows, as he gazed in Talleyrand's face with a peculiar and searching expression. His face was striking in its outline—the mouth and chin indicative of an iron will. His form vigorous, even with the snows of fifty winters, was clad in a dark but rich and distinguished costume.

Talleyrand advanced, and said if he was an American, he solicited his kind and friendly offices. He poured forth his history in eloquent French and broken English. 'I am a wanderer—an exile. I am forced to fly to the New World, without a friend or a home. You are an American! Give me, then, I beseech you, a letter of yours, so that I may be able to earn my bread. I am willing to toil in any manner—the scenes of Paris have filled me with such a horror, that a life of labor would be a paradise, compared with a career of luxury in France. You will give me a letter to one of your friends. A gentleman like you has doubtless many friends.' The strange gentleman rose. With a look that Talleyrand never forgot, he retreated towards the door of the next chamber, his head downcast, but his eyes looking still from beneath his darkened brow. He spoke as he retreated backward; his voice was full of meaning:

'I am the only man in the New World who can raise his hand to God, and say—I have not a friend—not one, in all America.'

Talleyrand never forgot the overwhelming sadness of that look which accompanied these words. 'Who are you?' he cried, as the strange man retreated towards the next room—"Your name?"

'My name'—with a smile that had more mockery than joy in its convulsive expression—"my name is Benedict Arnold!" He was gone. Talleyrand sank in a chair, gasping the words—

'Arnold the traitor!' Thus you see he wandered over the earth, another Cain, with a wanderer's mark upon his brow. Even in that desolate room at that inn of Havre, his crime found him out, and he was forced to tell his name—that name the synonyme of infamy.

The last twenty years of his life are covered with a cloud, from whose darkness but a few gleams of light flash out upon the page of history. He died in London in 1801.

The manner of his death is not distinctly known. But we cannot doubt that he died utterly friendless—that his cold brow was not moistened by one farewell tear—that remorse pursued him to the grave, whispering John Andre! in his ears, and that the memory of his course of glory gnawed like a canker at his heart, murmuring forever—"True to your country, what might you have been, O Arnold, the Traitor!"

ARNOLD AND THE NOBLEMAN.

On one occasion, while in England, Arnold was desirous to be introduced to a distinguished nobleman present, and wished an acquaintance present to introduce him. When his name was announced, the nobleman refused to give him his hand, but turned from him in disgust, showing by his manner that he utterly despised him.

A CUTTING REPROOF.

An American prisoner in England was enquired of by Arnold what he supposed the Americans would do to him, could they get him within their power. To which the other replied, that he thought they would cut off the leg which was wounded while in the service of his country, and bury it with the honors of war, while the rest of his carcass they would hang, as the treacherous Haman was hung on a gallows fifty cubits high!

Wh have received "The Semi-Annual Report of the Overseer of the Poor, with the Report of the Select Committee thereon, and accompanying Documents; to which is added the Annual Report of the City Marshal." This pamphlet contains a large amount of statistical and other information, drawn up with much care. That part containing a portion of the Will of the late E. K. Dexter, describing his valuable bequest to the Town of Providence, we copy entire, as it is a document in which all our citizens must feel an interest.

EXTRACT FROM THE WILL OF EBENEZER KNIGHT DEXTER.

Seventeenth. Feeling a strong attachment to my native town, and an ardent desire to ameliorate the condition of the poor, and to contribute to their comfort and relief, I give, grant and devise to the aforesaid town of Providence, in fee simple forever, my Neck Farm in said Providence, lying southerly of the Friends' Yearly Meeting School estate, together with all the buildings thereon, to be appropriated to the accommodation and support of the poor of said town, in manner hereinafter mentioned, and for no other use or purpose whatever. Provided, however, and this devise is upon condition, that said town shall, within five years after my decease, erect a building or buildings on said farm, suitable for the use and accommodation of the poor of said town, and shall, under their own management and direction, keep and maintain the same for that sole use and purpose forever; and provided, also, and this devise is upon this further condition, that said town shall, within twenty years after my decease, erect all around upon the exterior lines of said farm, leaving, however, suitable passage-ways into the same, a good permanent stone wall, at least three feet thick at the bottom, and at least eight feet high, and to be placed upon a foundation made of small stones, and as thick as the bottom of the wall, and sunk two feet deep in the ground. I hereby authorize said town, however, to exchange at any time before the building of said wall, such parts of said farm as they may think best, for other lands adjoining, for the purpose of straightening the lines of said farm, or throwing into better shape, but for no other purpose.

Eighteenth. I also give, grant, devise and bequeath to the aforesaid town of Providence, in fee simple forever, for the use of the poor of said town, as hereinafter mentioned, all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, not herein otherwise disposed of; the said town paying thereout, or out of the rents, profits or income thereof, at their discretion, the annuities aforesaid; and for the payment of which said annuities, all the real estate herein devised to said town, except the said Neck Farm and said lot devised for a Training Field, is to stand charged and chargeable. And I do hereby give said town full power and authority to sell, if they judge it best, the whole or any part of the real estate herein devised to them, except the said Neck Farm and the said lot devised for a training field, and to invest the proceeds of the sales thereof in bank or other stocks—the whole of said property and estate herein devised and bequeathed to said town to be kept together, and to constitute a permanent fund for the benefit of the poor of said town, and to be preserved entire forever: and until the said town shall have erected a building or buildings on said Neck Farm in the manner and for the purpose as is hereinbefore mentioned, the rents, profits and income of all the property and estate herein given and devised to said town, including the rents, profits and income of said Neck Farm to be added to said permanent fund and to constitute a part thereof; and when said town shall have so erected such building or buildings, and placed the same in suitable condition and under proper regulations to receive the poor of said town, then and from that time, all the rents, profits and income of all the property and estate herein given and devised to said town, including the rents, profits and income of said Neck Farm, to be applied by said town to the support and maintenance of the poor of said town, in such way and manner as said town from time to time, at any meeting legally holden, shall in their discretion direct, and for no other use or purpose whatever; provided, however, that no vote of any town meeting in relation to any part or portion of the property or estate herein devised and bequeathed to said town, or in relation to the management of the same, or of the rents, profits or income thereof, shall be of any force or effect, unless forty freemen, at least, be present at the time of passing such vote.

The following schedule of the lands mentioned in the foregoing Will, is taken from the City Auditor's last semi-annual report.

DEXTER DONATION.

The real estate devised to the town of Providence by the Will of Ebenezer Knight Dexter, Esq. in the year 1824, for the purposes mentioned therein, now consists of the following lands and improvements:

1. The Dexter Asylum, and the farm on which it is located' containing 1,727,970 square feet, (33 2-3 acres;) with a parcel of thatch near Central Bridge, containing 62,396 square feet; the whole under the care of the master of the Asylum.

2. The Tavern Estate on North Main street, leased to Joseph Smith and others, which together with

3. The house and lot on Meeting street, leased to Nathaniel Bump, occupies an area of 15,660 square feet.

4. The house and lot next south of the Tavern Estate on North Main street, occupying 2,900 square feet; leased to Sterry Clark.

5. Four lots fronting on Cranston street, three of which are 40 and one 41 feet front, by 150 feet deep, containing 24,750 square feet. Also, forty-five lots fronting on Hammond and Harrison streets, each 50 by 100 feet, containing 225,000 square feet. Also, two lots on the same street, averaging 41 and 54 feet wide, by 100 feet deep, containing 9,500 square feet. Three of the above lots are leased to the city, for school house lots.

6. The Dexter Training Ground, containing 395,410 square feet, (about 9 1-12 acres.) reserved and appropriated by the Will of Ebenezer K. Dexter, for that purpose; situated west of Dexter street, and bounded on all sides by 80 feet streets.

7. A half thatch right at the head of the Cove, bounding on North Providence.

8. The lands in the north part of the city, on Olney street, East Turnpike, Camp, Scott, North Main and Bacon streets, known as the Dwight lands, containing 540,090 square feet, (about 12 4-16 acres.) A portion of this land is occupied by the city, for a school house.

9. A lot fronting on High street and extending back 58 feet, containing 5,000 square feet; leased to Robert Knight and others, with a reserved right to sell the premises at any time during the lease.

Societies and Institutions in Providence.

BROWN UNIVERSITY.

This Institution of learning was founded by the Baptists in 1764 and incorporated in February, of the same year. It was at first located in Warren, where, on the 7th of September, 1769, the first Commencement was celebrated. In 1770 the College was removed to Providence, where its exercises have since been held, with a temporary suspension of some few years during the revolutionary war. The Institution received its present name in honor of its most liberal benefactor, the late Hon. NICHOLAS BROWN, by a vote of the Corporation, passed September 6, 1804.

The Charter, which is now "the Constitution of Brown University," secures to the Baptists forever, the government of the College. Some of its provisions are as follows:—"That into this liberal and Catholic Institution, shall never be admitted any religious tests; but on the contrary, all the members hereof shall forever enjoy full, free, absolute and uninterrupted liberty of conscience:—And that the places of Professors, Tutors, and all other officers, the President alone excepted, shall be free and open for all denominations of Protestants:—And that youth of all religious denominations shall and may be freely admitted to the equal advantages, emoluments, and honors of the College or University."

The Corporation for the regulation and government of the University, consists of two branches: "That of the Trustees, and that of the Fellowship." There are thirty-six Trustees, and twelve of the Fellowship, including the President. Of the Trustees, twenty-two by the Charter, are to be Baptists, five of the denomination called Friends, or Quakers, four Congregationalists, and five Episcopalians. Of the Fellows, eight are to be Baptists, "and the rest indifferently of any or all denominations." The President must be a Baptist. "The instruction and immediate government of the College," says the Charter, "shall forever be and rest in the President and Fellows, or Fellowship."

In 1850 material changes were made in the system of instruction given at the institution; the range of studies was greatly extended and the sum of $131,000 (raised by subscription, mostly among the citizens of Providence,) was added to the College funds, thus augmenting them to about $200,000.

LIBRARIES.

The University Library is in Manning Hall, and now contains 28,000 volumes. A large proportion of these have been purchased within the last few years, with special reference to the wants of students and gentlemen engaged in literary and scientific pursuits. It is constantly increasing from the proceeds of a permanent fund of $25,000, established for this purpose in 1830. The Library is open four hours daily, from 9 A. M. till 1 P. M. In addition to the University Library, the Libraries of the Philermenian and the United Brothers' Societies comprise together, 6000 volumes, accessible to all the students of the University.

The number of students is about two hundred.

The Annual Commencement is on the first Wednesday in September. The first Exhibition is on the Saturday preceding Thanksgiving, and the second Exhibition on the first Saturday in May. The week of the annual Thanksgiving and the week succeeding the second exhibition are given as recesses. The Winter vacation of three weeks commences about the 20th of January, and the summer vacation of 8 weeks commences about the 7th of July.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The Public Schools of the city of Providence are placed by the ordinance of the city, under the management of the School Committee, consisting of forty-five members; six are elected from each of the seven Wards. Two are elected from each Ward annually. The Mayor, the President of the Common Council and the Chairman of the Committee on Education are ex-officio members of the School Committee, making the whole number forty-four, who serve without any compensation. The experience of many years has shown, that the members of this Committee, each one feeling more or less heavily the pressure of his own private or professional business, cannot give that amount of time to the Public Schools, which an economical and successful management of them requires. For this reason, they have wisely entrusted much of the executive duty of the Committee to a Superintendent.

Rev. Daniel Leach is the present Superintendent of the Public Schools, and also acts as Principal of the High School. He spends all his time in visiting the different schools, exercising a careful supervision over them, and while passing from school to school, he aims to remove existing defects in the modes of teaching and management, and to introduce such improvements as his own observation and the progress of popular education may have shown to be useful. He also furnishes all necessary supplies, superintends all repairs, and in every practical way promotes the improvement of the Public Schools.

There are at present established in this city, forty-six Public Schools, in which are engaged one hundred and thirty teachers; ten gentlemen and the remainder ladies, who devote themselves faithfully to the instruction and government of their respective Schools, which together contain about 7,200 pupils.

The Schools are divided into four grades, viz.:

1st. Primary Schools,	3d. Grammar Schools,
2d. Intermediate Schools,	4th. High School.

FIRST GRADE. There are now established in the city twenty-one Primary Schools. These schools are designed for pupils from five years of age to six or seven, according to their advancement in learning. Each school is under the immediate government and instruction of two female teachers, a Principal and an Assistant, and usually contains about one hundred and thirty pupils. The teachers in these schools, beside teaching the elements of Reading, Spelling and Arithmetic, give their pupils much oral instruction of a familiar kind, suited to their age, with daily exercises in Vocal Music.

SECOND GRADE. There are seventeen Intermediate Schools established for children from six to eight or nine years of age, including those who were formerly in the first classes in the Primary Schools, and those in the lowest classes in the Grammar Schools. Each of these schools usually contains about one hundred and twenty pupils, who are under the instruction and management of two female teachers, a Principal and an Assistant. The scholars in these schools advance progressively to more difficult lessons in Reading, Spelling and Arithmetic and begin to take lessons in Writing and Geography. Vocal Music in these schools is taught by a professional Teacher, employed by the School Committee.

THIRD GRADE. Seven Grammar Schools are now established in the city, for the instruction of scholars from eight or nine years old to twelve or fourteen. Each Grammar School, except the one for colored children, usually contains upwards of two hundred pupils, who are under the government and instruction of a male Principal and three female Assistants.

The Bridgman school contains about 500 scholars. The Elm-street, the Arnold street and the Benefit street contain about 360 pupils each.

In these schools the scholars use a new set of text books, which present more enlarged and accurate views of the branches they have already begun, and in these books continue their exercises in Reading, Spelling, Writing, Arithmetic and Geography, and commence English Grammar, the History of the United States, and General History. Instruction in Vocal Music is also given in the High School by a professional teacher.

FOURTH GRADE. One High School with two departments—one for boys and one for girls. Each department will now accommodate more than two hundred pupils—making four hundred in the school. The full course of studies in this school occupies four years. The department for boys contains about 150 scholars, and the one for girls about 250. The boys are thus divided into three classes, of fifty each, and placed in separate rooms, under the government and instruction of a male Teacher. The girls are divided into five classes, and each placed in a separate room, under the care and instruction of a female Teacher. The course of studies in each department is adapted to the conditions of the pupils in after life; each sex pursuing all the common branches alike, but the boys taking the more scientific course, and the girls the more literary. The art of Drawing is taught in both departments by a professional Teacher.

FRIENDS' YEARLY MEETING BOARDING SCHOOL.

Established in 1819.

This Institution is under the direction of a Committee of the New England Yearly Meeting, who appoint Principals and Teachers. The number of teachers varies with the number of scholars, who are taught in the various branches of an English Education, including the Mathematics, and the Latin, Greek and French languages. Lectures are regularly delivered on Natural Philosophy, and Chemistry, illustrated by experiments, and occasionally upon other subjects embraced in the course of study in the school.

The school is furnished with a valuable Philosophical and Chemical apparatus. There is also a valuable Cabinet of Minerals belonging to the Institution. The pupils have access to a library of about 1200 volumes.

The number of scholars of both sexes averages about 130.

RHODE-ISLAND STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.

This Institution was located in Providence from its establishment in May, 1854, till September 15th, 1857, when in conformity to a vote of the General Assembly it was removed to the town of Bristol, where pleasant and well-arranged rooms are furnished for its accommodation, free of expense to the State.

By contract with the town the School is to remain there five years. The Board of Instruction consists of Dana P. Colburn, Principal, and Daniel Goodwin, A. M., and Miss H. W. Goodwin, Assistants. The school is under the supervision of the Commissioner of Public Schools.

All persons joining the school must comply with the following conditions:

- 1st. They must declare it to be their intention to qualify themselves for teachers in the State
- 2d. They must present to the Principal a certificate of good moral character, and of such other personal qualifications as ought to be found in every instructor of the young.

These certificates should as far as practicable, come from the School Committee of the town to which the applicant belongs, or in which he last attended or taught school.

3d. They must, if males, be at least 17, and if females, at least 16 years of age.

4th. They must pass a satisfactory written and oral examination in Reading, Writing, Spelling, Geography, Grammar and Arithmetic

5th. They must declare it their intention to remain in the school at least two terms.

6th. They must present themselves for examination on the first day of the term which they propose to enter.

Terms for 1859, commence as follows:

Spring and Summer Term, on Tuesday, March 29th; Fall Term, on Tuesday, September 6th; Winter Term, on Tuesday, November 29th. Tuition is free.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

A Teachers' Institute was held in Newport in September, 1858. The number of teachers in attendance was over two hundred.—Lectures and addresses were given by the Commissioner of Public Schools, Messrs. Colburn and Goodwin of the Normal School, Prof. Greene of Brown University, Gov. Boutwell, Mass. George W. Curtis, Esq. New-York, Rev. J. P. Gallion, Conn. Instruction in music was given by E. Ripley Blanchard, Esq. of Boston, and in Reading. Elocution by F. B. Peckham, Esq. of Newport.

DEXTER ASYLUM.*

The general superintendence of this Institution is placed in charge of the Mayor and Aldermen, who act as a Board of Overseers. They hold quarterly meetings at the Asylum on the first Saturdays of August, November, February and May. They also appoint one from their body, weekly, to act as a visiting committee for that period, who reports the next succeeding Monday, to the Board of Aldermen, the state of the establishment during his tour of duty. The immediate charge of the house is in care of a Master and Matron, annually appointed by the Board of Aldermen. The present incumbents are Hollis Chaffin and wife. Divine service is performed in the chapel every Sabbath.

The medical department is entrusted to a Board of Physicians, appointed annually by the Mayor and Aldermen. This Board at present consists of Drs. Collins and Ely, who attend the sick quarterly in succession. Dr. Joseph Mauran is the consulting physician. In all cases of peculiar interest or difficulty, they meet in consultation, keep a record of sickness, a report of which is made to the Board of Overseers, at their quarterly meetings.

THE PROVIDENCE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION,

Constitution adopted April 12, 1853.

Rooms No. 19 Westminster street. Hoppin's building.

The object of the Union, as stated in the Constitution, is "the spiritual, mental and social improvement of the Young Men residing in our community, and especially of Young Men who come from abroad to reside among us. Any person of good moral character, who believes in the truth of Christianity, without distinction of sect or party," may become a member, by a vote of a majority of the Board of Directors. Each member pays one dollar annually, or may become a life member by the payment of twenty dollars at one time. The President, three Vice-Presidents, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary, Librarian, Treasurer, and five others, constitute the Board of Directors. No denomination or sect can have more than two members on the Board of Directors at the same time.

The Board of Directors meets monthly, and the objects of the Union are to be accomplished by such means as the Board may direct. Connected with the Free Reading Room is a valuable Library, containing about 1200 volumes (and constantly increasing in size) which is entirely free to all who may desire its privileges. The Free Reading Room contains the principal Magazines and Reviews of the day the religious papers of the various denominations, as well as many of the local papers of interest.

The following are the officers for 1859 and '60.

Samuel Austin, President; Wm. C. Townsend, Jeffrey Hazard, George W. Danielson, Vice-Presidents; Jacob H. Martin Corresponding Secretary; John D. Marshall, Recording Secretary; Robert A. Pearson, Treasurer; Charles P. Hartshorn, Librarian; Samuel Austin, Wm. C. Townsend, Jeffrey Hazard, G. W. Danielson, Jacob H. Martin, John D. Marshall, Robert A. Pearson, Charles P. Hartshorn, David A. Andrews, Wm. S. Johnson, Joseph H. Atwater, Charles M. Winchester, Thomas Hope, Directors; Charles E. Hubbard, Actuary.

The Union has at the present time a membership of some 400 to 500, and is better sustained now than at any previous time since its organization.

PROVIDENCE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION,
Organized September, 1853.

President—Emory Lyon.

Vice-Presidents—1. J. G. Markland; 2. Wm. B. Lawton; 3. Albert C. Howard; 4. Jeremiah Heath.

Recording Secretary—James H. Olney.

Corresponding Secretary—John J. Ladd.

Treasurer—Benjamin W. Ham.

Librarian—T. B. Makepeace.

Board of Managers—The above, together with the following: Nicholas B. Bolles, Thomas W. Chace, George E. Cranston, Jared W. Scoville, Frederick Miller, A. B. McCrillis, Benj. T. Cranston, Clement Webster, Leander P. Rice, Amasa M. Wheeler, Lewis J. Chace, E. B. Carpenter, Samuel Boyd, jr., Theodore B. Talbot, Joseph Frankland, James T. Anthony, Robert R. Knowles, Jas. W. Taft, George L. Clafin, J. C. Thompson, jun., Samuel T. Poinier, Woodbridge Nearing, James Wilson.

The rooms of this Association are in Duncan's block, No. 56 Weybosset street. The object of the Association is "the improvement of the spiritual, mental and moral condition of Young Men."

"By the loving kindness of our God, prosperity has in no considerable degree crowned our efforts. Our Reading Room has been much improved, and is now a most pleasant place of resort for our young men: but added to a comfortable, quiet and even elegant room, we have presented attractions of a higher order. Our tables and files have been supplied with the best selections from our current periodical literature. We have thus furnished for gratuitous use a Reading Room not surpassed, we think, by any one in our city. It has been well patronized. At no time since our organization has the number of visitors been so large as at present.

A course of monthly lectures at the Rooms, on Monday evenings, have, in general, been well attended. A Class for improvement in debate, recitation, and composition, has sustained its exercises with vigor and interest.

Two Mission Sabbath Schools are now sustained by the Association, and several Mission Schools are aided by members of this organization.

Our library now contains more than 2200 volumes, while there are funds for a very considerable increase still in the treasury. The circulation of our books is large and constantly increasing.

Whole number given out during the year, 6000. It is thought that three fourths of the books have been taken by young men and boys under 20 years of age. Hitherto the privileges of the library have been restricted to the members of the Association, but now they are offered to all, male or female, who are willing to pay the annual tax of one dollar.

With the assurance that we are engaged in a great, good and practicable work, we enter upon a new year full of courage and confident expectations."

MASTIC ROOFING COMPANY.

OFFICE No. 216 PINE STREET.

A. T. HALE, SUPERINTENDENT. RANSOM HICKS, GEN. AGENT.

We are now prepared to contract for and execute with dispatch any amount of Roofing that may be called for. This Roofing is

FIRE AND WATER PROOF,

and is sufficiently elastic to entirely resist the expansion and contraction by heat and cold, and will remain perfect and solid in the warmest and coldest weather.
It is adapted to STEEP ROOFS as well as flat, and therefore supercedes the expensive necessity of re-shingling old roofs, as this costs but little more than half of that of GOOD SHINGLES, and makes a better roof.

AND PERFECT WHITE IN USE.*STIMSON'S PARLOR WHITE.

To meet the inquiry of persons wishing a Paint superior to White Lead, French or American Zinc, the PARLOR WHITE is specially designed, combining as it does, PURITY OF WHITE and durability; having by practical test, been found to excel in these and other desirable properties, any other pigment. It is particularly commended to the favorable notice of persons requiring the very best finish in DWELLING-HOUSES, FANCY STORES, STEAMBOAT or SHIPS' CABINS; will be found also superior to any other White Paint for outside work. For inside work, where gloss finish is required, it forms the most beautiful enamel when applied with our white varnish.

This Paint, either for inside or outside work, will be found as cheap and economical to use, as any other, where beauty and durability are considered. The article is put up securely in Tin Cans, of 10 and 20 lbs., also in 100 lb. kegs, on which are labels giving directions for mixing and application. Orders from any distance, by express or otherwise, are invited, and will be promptly and satisfactorily answered.

BOSTON MEDICAL AND SURGICAL JOURNAL

This well-known and long established Periodical entered upon its 60th vol. in February, 1859. It will be issued weekly, as heretofore, from the office of publication, OVER 184 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON. Its editorial management has for several years past been entrusted to Dr. WM. W. MORLAND, formerly Secretary of the Boston Society for Medical Improvement, and Dr. FRANCIS MINOR, one of the Physicians of the Mass. General Hospital, who have been selected as fully qualified by their literary taste and scientific attainments to make the Journal acceptable to the profession generally. Aid is also now freely given by many of the leading physicians of Boston, and it will continue to receive contributions from eminent members of the profession in every part of the country. Its contents, though mainly of a practical character, are intended to be sufficiently varied to make its weekly visits interesting as well as useful to the medical practitioner.

The price is THREE DOLLARS a year, payable in advance. Previous numbers of the current volume furnished, and back volumes also supplied at a liberal discount. Orders by mail, with subscription money enclosed, may be addressed as above, to Universally approved, extensively used, and considered by many teachers the best treatise in print.

TOWER'S GRADUAL READERS.

Stearns's Practical Guide to English Pronunciation,

A work just introduced into the Schools of Boston, and many other places; filling an entirely new and important place in education, and receiving the highest praise from the most competent judges.

Wilson's Treatise on English Punctuation.

The best and most complete work ever published upon the subject, and approved by all who have examined it.

PAYSON, DUNTON & SCRIBNER'S COMBINED SYSTEM OF RAPID PENMANSHIP,

In Eleven Parts. With copies at the head of each page. A series of Copy-Books better known and more extensively used, than any other published. Its merits have secured its introduction into all the States of the Union, and it is well known to the trade as the most popular series in the country.

Book-keeping adapted to Payson, Dunton & Scribner's combined system of Penmanship

A new and beautiful book, combining instruction in Book-Keeping by Double and Single Entry and Penmanship. This work has been examined by competent persons, who pronounce it one of the best works ever published upon the subject. It has already been widely introduced, and will commend itself wherever the system of penmanship is known.

Near corner of Pine and Dorrance-streets.

G. T. S. is also the sole proprietor for R. Island of "GOOD'S PATENT CORPSE PRESERVER," a new and important invention by which the bodies of deceased persons are preserved for any length of time. By this apparatus bodies are entirely protected from all depredations, thus dispensing with the necessity of night watchers.—It is particularly useful where the relatives of the deceased are absent, and wish the body kept until they can be present at the interment. A glass is inserted in the lid, in the Preserver, through which the features of the deceased may at all times be seen. Bodies may also be conveyed hundreds of miles in the Preserver, with perfect safety and in a good state of preservation. The subscriber's is the only establishment in Rhode-Island where this valuable article can be obtained. The charge is reasonable. The subscriber had the Preserver in use all the past season, and in every case in which it was employed, it gave the most entire satisfaction. To those who wish other evidence of its value, we have been kindly permitted to refer to Dr. Lewis L. Miller. The subscriber will sell Patent rights for the above. All persons are forbid infringing upon the patent.

WOLSTENHOLME'S*HELION LIGHT.*Gas Light for every House

No Burning Fluid used!!

Self-generating Gas Lamps!

COMBINING

POWER, BEAUTY, SAFETY AND ECONOMY!

EXCEEDING ALL OTHER LIGHTS,

Excepting only THE SUN.

These Lamps are self-generating GAS LAMPS—decidedly the MOST INTENSE AND BEAUTIFUL illumination, with only one exception, viz. HELIOS, the Sun, from whom it derives its name; also, next to his light for cheapness and purity. To behold is to admire, approve and patronize.

By these Lamps, a light of greater brilliancy and intensity than the gas, can be had in every house in town and country; and better still, be at the same time portable.

It has now proved itself, since its introduction, to be the BEST means of portable illumination yet introduced to the public. Its recommendations are numerous. They are chiefly these:

1st. Its brilliancy and beauty. The same measure of flame of this light will illuminate a larger circle than any other artificial light.

2d. Its cheapness. The same amount of light cannot be obtained by any other means at the same cost. For a given amount of light, the Helion Oil, at $1 per gallon, is as cheap as burning fluid would be at 25 cents.

3d. Its uniformity, simple and easy management. When once lighted there is no trouble with it, or variation, till it is burnt out. A child ten years of age could manage the whole as easily as a candle.

4th. Its safety; aside from oil lamps, these are the

SAFEST LAMPS IN USE!

During a thorough experience of four years, the manufacturer has not been able to see how his entire confidence in this particular can be abated. He has sold thousands upon thousands of these Lamps, and not one disaster has yet occurred. Then who will use oil, or burning fluid, who can obtain the Helion Light?

5th. The purity and odor of the oil, is such as will please the most fastidious. Call and see, and JUDGE OF THE TRUTH.

Thousands of commendations could be appended, but it is deemed unnecessary.

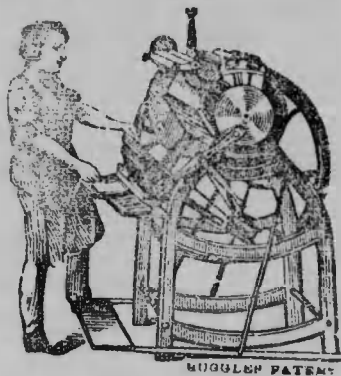

The Helion Oil can only be had of the subscriber who is the sole manufacturer, and his Agents.

More Agents wanted to spread it through every town and village, to whom exclusive sale of HELION LAMPS, FITTINGS and OIL will be given. HELION LAMPS in every style, from 62 cents to $10, constantly on hand. FLUID and Oil Lamps of every kind adjusted to the Helion at the Furnishing Depot, 29 Dorrance-street.

Rules of Agency obtained on application to JAMES WOLSTENHOLME, Proprietor, or to JAMES POTTER, General Agent

CHILSON'S NEW CONE FURNACE

Just Completed, and Patented in America, England and France.

THIS INVENTION IS OFFERED AS A CHALLENGE TO THE WORLD FOR ALL HEATING PURPOSES

FIVE SIZES OF CONE FURNACES. FIVE SIZES OF TRIO PORTABLE
FURNACES. FIVE SIZES OF TRIO STOVES.

Elevation of Furnace and Section of Brick Work. Vertical Section, through Fire Pot, Cones and Annular Chamber, showing the Action of Heat on the Cones

Thirty years of practical experience as an Inventor and Manufacturer of Heating and Cooking Apparatus, has enabled the undersigned to arrive at certain new discoveries and improvements, to which he begs to call the especial attention of those about erecting, or remodeling buildings, as well as dealers in hot air, steam, or hot water Furnaces, and all interested in steam power to a careful examination of the most important scientific discovery of the age, the construction of Heating Apparatus, and the most economical plan yet discovered for burning fuel so as to secure all the heat from the fuel. This invention entirely changes the character and principle of hot air Furnaces, developing another and a new principle unknown before. The thorough and highly satisfactory trial of a large number of Cone Furnaces in use the past winters, clearly proves the most wonderful economy in fuel ever yet attained, together with the extraordinary heating power which insures a certainty of having warm and comfortable rooms, with fresh, healthful warm air. Thus proving the hitherto enormous waste of fuel and unhealthful heat from furnaces to be attributed to the unscientific inventions so illy adapted for the purposes of warming buildings. No intelligent person that can see, or get correct information of the Cone heating principle, will be liable to adopt any other plan for heating buildings.

The Cone Furnace receives the highest commendation from all, especially from persons of the greatest scientific attainments in such matters. It received the first premium and ONLY GOLD MEDAL ever awarded on a Furnace in Massachusetts, at the late Fair of the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanic Association, held in Boston.

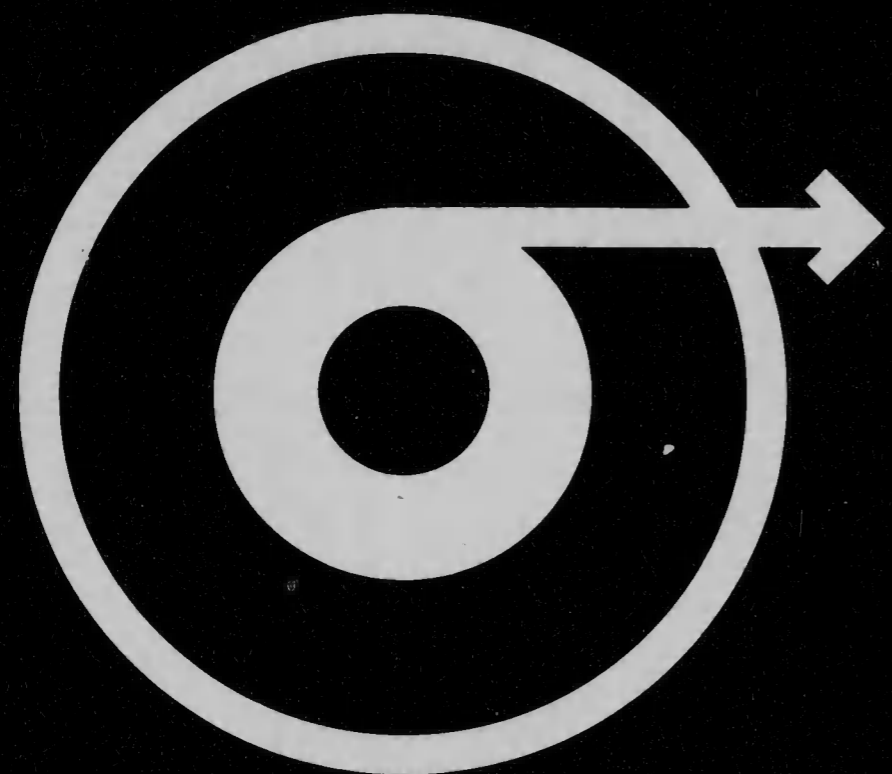

Cooking Ranges, Stoves, Mantels, Grates, Registers, Ventilators, etc. in full supply as usual. Personal attention given to warming and ventilating buildings. Orders promptly filled from Boston, or the Foundry at Mansfield, Junction of Boston and Providence and Taunton Branch Railroads. NOS. 99 and 101 BLACKSTONE STREET, BOSTON.
