Dear Olagbegi Family:

Congratulations on the 11th Annual Olagbegi Family Reunion! Residing in almost every state in the Nation, across Europe, and Nigeria, the Olagbegi family comes together once a year to celebrate the Yoruba history and culture that stems back to the eleventh century. Marking the time by your continuous accomplishments, your long-lasting, colorful legacy will not soon be forgotten.

While many furiously try to blend in with society and today's pop culture, I offer my respect to the Olagbegi family as you honor your roots, your achievements, and your home. As active, contributing citizens here, in the United States, and abroad, you continue to educate others on the importance of family, tradition, and commitment, working to bridge the gaps between cultures and foster tolerance and acceptance. Proud of your historical background, the royalty that flows through your veins gives you a sense of responsibility to the Owo province, and Nigeria in general. With this sense of responsibility you go forth as engineers, lawyers, physicians, activists, shedding light on the tragedy that lives in Nigeria, hoping to improve the conditions in the Owo District.

Thank you for the cordial invitation to attend the 11th Olagbegi Family Reunion. Regrettably, I am unable to celebrate this wonderful occasion with you due to a previously scheduled event. However, please extend my sincerest regrets and congratulate the Family on their success in American society.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Jim Langevin
