

THE CITY OF PROVIDENCE
STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 619

Approved December 26, 1990

Whereas, with the coming of inauguration day, January 7, 1991, the term of office of several of our esteemed colleagues comes to an end, and

Whereas the following members have contributed greatly to this body:

Councilman Raymond Cola the "Dean" of the City Council, has served the Sixth Ward for some twenty-five years

Council President Nicholas W. Easton has served the Ninth Ward for twelve years, and as Council President for six years.

Councilman Malcolm Farmer III has served the Second Ward for twelve years and has served as the Minority Leader of the City Council.

Councilman Andrew J. Annaldo has served the Fourteenth Ward for eight years, and has chaired the Committee on City Property.

Councilman Donald J. Lopes has served the Third Ward for four years, and has served on the Committees on Ordinances, Urban Redevelopment, Renewal and Planning and City Property as well as the Civic Center Authority and Housing Authority, and

Whereas, the combined service of these members spans some sixty-one years; they represent vastly different areas of the city. Yet each of them has given abundantly of himself and his life to the service of his constituents and the City,

Now, therefore, be it Resolved that the members of the City Council do express sincere appreciation to our departing colleagues for the honor of having served with them, along with very best wishes for continued good fortune, and

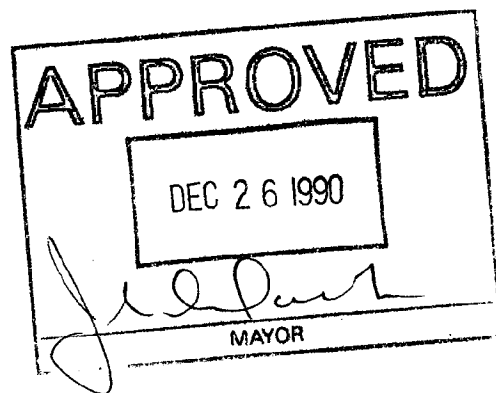

Be it Further Resolved, that these members are extended an invitation to revisit these chambers often, and are hereby granted permission to take a seat within the rail whenever the Council is in session.

Approved December 26, 1990

Whereas, November 24 was indeed an eventful day for the Fagnoli family, for John and Bonnie had just moved in to their new home when 6 pound 14 ounce James Anthony Fagnoli arrived - the perfect housewarming present, and

Whereas, this is the first grandchild for our esteemed colleague Councilwoman Evelyn Fagnoli, and she has risen to the challenge of her grandmotherly duties, namely to spoil the child. We hear that Evelyn has garnered considerable experience in this department with Nino, the first dog of the Fifth Ward,

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the members of the City Council do express congratulations to the proud parents, and have no doubt that young James Anthony will indeed warm the Fagnoli household for years to come.

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 621

Approved December 26, 1990

Whereas, Colonel Walter J. Clark has retired as Chief of the Providence Police Department, and

Whereas, he ended his career thirty-one years to the day after it began as a nineteen year old clerk, and

Whereas, he steadily rose through the ranks and served as second in command for three chiefs, and

Whereas, he was named Chief in June of 1988, and became very visible in the community, taking part of each day to patrol the streets himself and encourage his men and women, and often attending meetings at night.

Now therefore, Be it Resolved that the members of the City Council express sincere appreciation to Walter J. Clark for his many years of dedicated service to this city, and wish he and his wife and family a long, happy, and healthy retirement.
