COUNCIL PRESIDENT LUIS A. APONTE IN THE CHAIR

“It is with a proud sense of humility that I stand here today before this gathering of friends, family and colleagues to recommit ourselves toward working on behalf of all the citizens of our city. To recommit ourselves, to working to ensure that every neighborhood has its voice heard here in City Hall, to ensure that all our citizens will have ample opportunity to be part of what has been and will continue to be a great city with a bright future. If you would allow me a second I would like to recognize some of the members of the Providence Delegation who have joined us here today. State Representative and Former Council President John J. Lombardi, Representative Grace Diaz, Representative Raymond Hull, Representative Scott Slater and Representative-Elect Daniel McKiernan. I would also like to welcome members of the Providence Delegation. Senator Juan Pichardo, Senator Harold Metts and though he is not on my list, my dear friend Representative John Carnevale and Representative Joseph Almedia, my representative. I would be remiss if I didn’t acknowledge the presence of my mentor, someone without her guidance and help I’m not sure I would be here and that is Former Councilwoman Balbina Young. I am particularly and especially proud to welcome to the Council Chamber our new Mayor, Mayor Jorge Elorza. I would also like to recognize the presence of our Probate Judge, Judge Martinelli and Housing Court Judge and Former Councilman David Igliazzi.”

PERSONAL EXPRESSION

COUNCILMAN NARDUCCI Requests the privilege of the floor to speak on a Point of Personal Expression and states:

“First of all, I want to welcome you as the new Council President. I hope we’re going to have a good working relations going forward. I know we always did have a great working relationship, because I think all of our feelings are the same as far as being City Council people. I think I have proved in eight years to the people of Providence that I just don’t work for the 4th Ward. I work for every ward in our city. Our kids are our kids and we have to remember this going forward. We have a lot of work to do and I will honored to work beside you as Council President. Good Luck and welcome.”
