VETO BY HIS HONOR THE MAYOR

Communication dated March 28, 1980 informing the Honorable City Council of his Disapproval and Veto of that Ordinance entitled: "Revenues and Finance", by Adding Section 21-16 as the substance of the Ordinance is in violation of several areas of the Charter of the City of Providence and the Charter Commission is seeking to amend and/or change the present Code of Ordinances under which Providence's Municipal Government functions.

March 28, 1980

The Honorable Members
The City Council of The City of Providence
City Hall
Providence, Rhode Island 02903

Dear Honorable Members:

I hereby veto and disapprove the Ordinance in amendment of and in addition to Chapter 21 of the Code and Ordinances of the City of Providence, entitled: "Revenues and Finance" by adding Section 21-16. I take this action because the substance of this ordinance is in violation of several areas of the Charter of the City of Providence. Moreover, at a time when the Charter Commission is seeking to amend and/or change the present Code and Ordinances under which our municipal government functions, it seems most appropriate that any precipitous action on our part through such amendments be deferred until such time as the sponsors of this resolution have presented their proposed ordinance to the Charter Commission.

Respectfully Submitted,

Vincent A. Cianci, Jr.
Mayor of Providence

Communication Received, on motion of COUNCILMAN GLAVIN, seconded by COUNCILMAN FLYNN.

The motion to Receive is Sustained.

ORDINANCE SECOND READING

The Following Ordinance was in City Council April 2, 1980, Read and Passed the First Time, and is Returned For Passage the Second Time:

An Ordinance Enabling the City Council of the City of Providence to Grant a Three Thousand Dollar ($3,000.00) Real Property Tax Exemption to any Person One Hundred Percent (100%) Disabled who Owns and Occupies Residential Property Located in the City of Providence.

Be It Ordained by the City of Providence:

Section 1. Authority of City Council — The City Council of the City of Providence is hereby authorized to grant a $3,000.00 real property exemption from taxation to any person who is one hundred percent (100%) disabled and who owns and occupies residential property, located in the City of Providence. Such exemption shall be granted upon proof of the following:

(1) Ownership of said residential property for a period of three (3) years next prior to the filing of an application for taxation;

(2) Occupancy of same;

(3) That said taxpayer is legally domiciled in the City of Providence. Nothing contained herein shall abrogate or affect the authority conferred upon the City Assessor by the provisions of Section 44-3-3, sub-paragraph 16 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1956, as amended.

Sec. 2. Filing of application — Proof of right to exemption. No person shall be entitled to any exemption herein authorized in any year without first filing an application with the City Assessor on forms furnished by said Assessor. Each application shall be sworn to by the applicant under penalty of perjury and may be verified by the authority granting such disability payments. Such verification shall be at the discretion of the Assessor. Proof of such disability designated in Title II and Title XVI of the Social Security Acts, as amended. However, those certain individuals being 100% disabled and receiving disability payments from sources other than Social Security, such as employees of the railroad, Federal civil service, postal service and Providence Police Department, shall also be entitled to apply and receive exemption under this Ordinance. Proof of such disability, ownership, occupancy and legal domicile shall be furnished in the following manner:

(a) Proof of disability; any person who is certified to be one hundred percent (100%) disabled,

(b) Ownership: ownership shall be established by furnishing the City Assessor with the date of purchase and land record citation of same by the applicant of the residential property involved.

(c) Occupancy: occupancy of the residential property may be proven by incorporating such fact in the sworn application for exemption;

(d) Legal domicile: domicile may be established by the production of (1) voter's registration certificate and/or (2) by the production of a license to operate vehicle, or a registration certificate, or by such other means as the City Assessor may reasonably require;

(e) Other forms of proof: an applicant may provide proof of right to exemption if the above specified methods are not available to him or her by furnishing military records, passports, certificate of citizenship or by such other evidence of proof as may be required by the City Assessor.

(f) Residential property shall be defined as not more than a three (3) family dwelling unit, with no commercial or office space involved.

In the event that the applicant for exemption is a co-tenant, joint tenant, or tenant by the entirety, proof enumerated by any one of the applicant owners shall be sufficient to entitle the individual to the exemption; however meaning and intending that only one exemption shall be allowed under this Ordinance to any one household whether one individual owner or all the owners are receiving benefits under one or more of the disability provisions.

Further, those individuals already receiving special exemption benefits as being so-called "Service-Related Disabled" under the Veteran's exemption program shall be allowed to file under this provision and be allowed to claim a maximum $3,000 exemption as a disabled individual, but shall not be entitled to claim both such exemption benefits separately.

Sec. 3. Termination of exemptions. All exemptions shall terminate upon (1) the conveyance of the subject property, (2) death of the person exempted, (3) the moving of such person from the City of Providence, (4) the termination of such disability benefits, (5) and upon the age of 65 when all disability benefits are converted to retirement benefits and the individuals exempted must then apply for continued exemption under the Senior Citizens exemption program.

Sec. 4. Severability clause — If any provisions or provisions or parts of this Act are declared to be unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provision or provisions or parts thereof shall be deemed to be void, and the remainder of the said provision or provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

Sec. 5. This Ordinance shall take effect on December 31, 1979.

Read and Passed, the Second Time, on motion of COUNCILMAN GLAVIN, seconded by COUNCILMAN FLYNN, by the following Roll Call Vote:

Ayes: Council President Fargnoli and Councilmen Almagno, Boyle, Councilwoman Brassil, Councilmen Cirelli, Cola, Easton, Farmer, Flynn, Glavin, Johnson, Lynch, O'Connor, Pennine, Petrosinelli, Salvatore, Snowden, Stravato and Xavier—19.

Resolution Commending Joseph C. DiSanto,
Director of Public Property and Vincent Altomari, Fuel Allocation Officer, Upon their fine efforts in Conserving Energy for the City of Providence in the Cost of Fuel Oil.

Whereas, The fine efforts of Joseph C. DiSanto, Director of Department of Public Property and Vincent Altomari, Fuel Allocation Officer, has resulted in a savings to the City of Providence for the purchase of No. 2 Fuel Oil, and

Whereas, With diligence and time, having reviewed the prices charged by the Company contracted for the purchase of fuel oil, it was found that the price was exorbitant, the City being charged the same amount of money as homeowners and occupants, and

Whereas, This indepth investigation has resulted in a savings to the City in thousands of dollars,

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the City Council hereby commends Joseph C. DiSanto,
Director of Public Property and Vincent Altomari,
