"Sec. 198. A person charged with the violation of any traffic regulation, and notified in writing by a police officer to appear to answer such charge before the Police Court, instead of personally appearing in court, may in person or by one duly authorized by him in writing, appear before the Clerk of said court, admit the truth of said charge, and pay to said Clerk the designated fine; provided that such appearance, admission and payment be made at the office of said Clerk during regular business office hours, within five (5) days of such notification, and failure to so appear shall be deemed a waiver of the right to dispose of such charge without personal appearance in court. The right to dispose of such a charge without personal appearance in court may not be exercised by any person who in any consecutive period of 12 months next preceding such charge has been three times in the aggregate adjudged guilty by the Police Court of any violation of traffic regulation or ordinances, or has admitted the truth of charges made against him relating to traffic offenses."

"The payment of the fine to the Clerk as herein provided shall operate as a final disposition of the charge, and such proceedings shall not be deemed criminal. Notice of any violation shall indicate the offense charged, and shall also contain such other information as will enable the person charged to take advantage of the provisions of this section."

"Sec. 199. Any police officer may remove and impound, or cause to be removed or impounded, any vehicle parked upon any street or highway, in such a violation of any parking regulation, other than overtime parking, as to constitute an obstruction to traffic.
