Section 2. The Providence City Assessor shall assess and apportion said tax on inhabitants and ratable real estate and tangible personal property of said City as of the 31st day of December AD 2019 midnight, Eastern Standard Time, as well as assess and apportion said excise tax on owners of registered motor vehicles in the City of Providence during calendar year 2019, according to law, and shall on completion of said assessment, date and sign, and shall make out and certify to the City Collector of the City of Providence, on or before the 15th day of June AD 2020, or as permitted or extended by law, a complete listing containing: (1) the names of persons taxed and the total value of all real estate taxed to each; (2) the amount of the personal estate, except manufacturer's machinery and equipment, assessed against each person; and, (3) the amount of said motor vehicle excise assessment against each person, on said real estate, personal estate and motor vehicle opposite the name of the person or persons assessed.

(b) The Classes of property within this plan are as follows:

- (1) Class 1. Residential real estate consisting of no more than five (5) dwelling units, land classified as open space, and dwellings on leased land including mobile homes. This class includes residential properties containing partial commercial or business uses with no more than five (5) dwelling units; provided, that for the properties with both residential and commercial or business uses, the residential tax rate will be applied to the residential portion and the commercial tax rate will be applied to the commercial portion. A homestead exemption is authorized for eligible properties within this class as defined in subsection d:
- (2) Class 2. Commercial and industrial real estate, residential properties containing partial commercial or business uses; and residential real estate of more than five (5) dwelling units. (c) The Tax Rates within this plan are as follows:

(d) Homestead eligibility:

- (1) To be eligible for the homestead exemption, effective as to the assessment date of December 31 at midnight, an applicant must file with the city assessor no later than March 15 a homestead application, together with a declaration, and present evidence, under oath, as to the owner-occupied and/or non-owner-occupied status together with any other proof of residency and ownership and the ownership of all motor vehicles registered either with the State of Rhode Island or with any foreign state, and to provide that information in any manner which may be required by the city assessor; except, that in the case of new construction of, or renovation of no less than thirty (30) percent of the prior year's assessment of improvements, as certified by the Providence building official, of foreclosed upon existing structures for affordable owner-occupied residential property, eligibility for the owner-occupied rate shall be determined upon application on or after the date of the execution of a purchase and sales agreement for a specific property, but no later than sixty (60) days of its sale, applied on a pro rata basis for the remainder of the current tax year as if the owner-occupied rate had been granted as of the prior December 31 assessment date. "Affordable residential property" shall mean property determined to be affordable under the rules and regulations of the department of planning and development.
- (2) Only natural person(s) are qualified to receive a homestead exemption. Real property which is partially or wholly owned by a business, an institution, a nonprofit organization, a financial institution that has foreclosed on real estate, including, without limitation, HUD and Rhode Island Housing and Mortgage Finance Corporation, or any other such public or private entity, do not qualify for a homestead exemption.
- (3) For good cause, the city assessor may, with advice of the board of tax assessment review accept and grant:
 - (i) Applications for homestead exemption after the filing deadline for the current or previous year's taxes only
 - (ii) Applications from an entity and its shareholder(s)/member(s)/owner(s), as the case may be, upon receiving a sworn declaration from said person(s) that he/she/they primarily resided in the subject real estate as of the applicable assessment date, and that the ownership of the subject property is in said entity's name solely for estate purposes.
- (4) Applicants may only qualify for one (1) homestead exemption in the city at any one (1) point in time. In addition, an owner of real estate in the City of Providence must meet all of the following requirements in order to qualify for a homestead exemption:

- (i) Neither the homestead applicant nor the applicant's spouse is receiving a homestead exemption or an owner-occupied rate for another piece of real property, located elsewhere in the State of Rhode Island, or in any other state of the United States, for the same period of time the owner is seeking the homestead exemption for property owned in Providence; unless during that time the owner is either legally separated or divorced from the spouse during some or all of the period in which they are claiming more than one homestead exemption or owner occupied rate;
- (ii) The applicant, and the applicant's spouse, is paying the Providence excise tax due on each and every motor vehicle owned by either one when that vehicle is garaged more than thirty (30) days in the State of Rhode Island, unless (a) the vehicle is registered in the name of the applicant's spouse, and (b) the applicant and the applicant's spouse are either legally separated or divorced;
- (iii) The applicant has filed with the Providence Tax Assessor a current listing of all motor vehicles with foreign registrations that the applicant owns as required by R.I.G.L. § 31-7-1. If an applicant currently receiving the homestead exemption has at least one (1) motor vehicle registered to the same address as the property receiving the rate, then the tax collector shall presume that these requirements have been complied with; however, the tax collector shall have the authority to investigate whether other circumstances (such as the ownership of additional motor vehicles registered elsewhere) indicate noncompliance that overcomes this presumption. If an applicant currently receiving the homestead exemption does not have any motor vehicles registered to the same address, the tax collector may take appropriate action to ascertain compliance with these requirements and to revoke the homestead exemption, both prospectively and retroactively as necessary to the enactment of this section.
- (iv) The homestead exemption attaches to the owner(s) of the real property not to the real property itself.
- (v) The city assessor shall deny an application for the homestead exemption if the city assessor determines that an execution of record based upon a judgment of the housing court for a real estate code violation(s) against the applicant remains unsatisfied.
- (vi) Upon purchase of a residence, a homeowner may apply for a homestead exemption as of the date of purchase for the current tax year, notwithstanding the fact that applicant did not own the property as of December 31 of the prior year. The exemption will be granted pro rata for the number of days the applicant owns the property during the year in which the home is purchased. In the event the subject property is sold or transferred during the year for which the homestead exemption is claimed, the homestead exemption is removed for that portion of the year following the sale or transfer should the new buyer not apply and be granted a homestead exemption. The buyer or transferee shall be liable to the city for any tax benefit wrongfully received after the date of sale or transfer.

- (vii) If the taxpayer knowingly gives misinformation as to ownership and/or occupancy of the real estate and/or ownership of motor vehicles on his/her application for a homestead exemption, the city assessor may, in such event, remove the homestead exemption and recalculate the tax for the period in question and in addition charge the taxpayer the maximum interest permitted by law. If the taxpayer provides incorrect information, knowingly or not, the city assessor may remove the homestead exemption and may impose back taxes up to the full amount owed for the period in question.
- (5) The city assessor is empowered to promulgate any further rules and regulations which he/she deems necessary to carry out the intent and purpose of this section as it relates to the homestead exemption.

Section 5. In keeping with the authorization provided in Rhode Island General Laws 44-3-31 and 44-3-24, Section 21-126 of the Providence Code of Ordinances is hereby amended as follows:

The amount of the following exemptions with respect to the assessed value from local taxation on taxable property is fixed as follows:
