

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 80

Approved January 24, 1995

WHEREAS, The Ciccone Law Outlaws have been the most powerful force in Flag Football in Rhode Island in the past 5 years, and

WHEREAS, In the month of December, they showed there is no intention of letting up, and

WHEREAS, Not only are the Outlaws Rhode Island's Flag Football Champions, they are once again National Flag Football Association Champions of Division "B" after a Tournament Victory in Columbia, Maryland, and

WHEREAS, The Outlaws won the Rhode Island title in 1989, 1991, 1992, 1993 and 1994, and

WHEREAS, This past season appeared to be a tougher challenge to take the State Crown when the Outlaws encountered new opposition from a tough Hooters Team, but they met the Challengers and defeated the Hooters 36-0, and

WHEREAS, In Maryland, the Outlaws lost one game in the "A" Division but when they dropped into "B" Competition and their record was flawless, and

WHEREAS, After wins over Cherry Hill, Maryland, and Pennsylvania State Champions and Runner-up, Rhode Island became home to another National Title, and

WHEREAS, This team is comprised of such good players as Charlie Holiday, Mike Green, Brian Waite, Blake Waddy, Eric House, Tony Zula, Mario McClane, Bevril Waite, Gary Maxie, Tony Rampone, Tony Sanders, Shawn Waite, Anniello Gonsalves and Manager/Owner Richard Ciccone, along with the talented coaching of Alfred Gomes, Bevril Waite, Sr., Eddy Givens, Kelvis Smith, Dennis Waite and Wayne Blackmon,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Providence City Council does hereby express their congratulations upon Richard Ciccone and the Outlaws for a job well done and also showing the great sportsmanship that Providence, Rhode Island has and wishing them great success in the near future.

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 81

Approved January 24, 1995

WHEREAS, The Providence Journal has not been able to cover the astute remarks of former Councilman Joshua Fenton because he has moved out of our great City and now resides in the hamlet of Woonsocket, and

WHEREAS, The news has been very dull of late, and

WHEREAS, On December 31st, just in time to become a tax exemption, Grace Anne Fenton was born weighing in at 9 lbs. 6 oz. to Joshua and Julie Fenton, and

WHEREAS, Given the family talent for political life, we expect that young Grace Anne is being groomed even now to take her place in the National Political Arena, and

WHEREAS, The United States of America has still not elected a Woman President of the United States, the time has come for Grace Anne Fenton, a young woman as beautiful as her mother and as articulate as her father, to take her place in history as President Fenton,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Members of the City Council extend congratulations to the proud parents former Councilman Fenton and his lovely wife, Julie along with every best wish for continued good fortune.
