Honorable Members of the Providence City Council:

Pursuant to Mayor Joseph R. Paolino's Executive Order No. 12, establishing an Affirmative Action Review Committee, I have appointed Deputy Superintendent of Schools Joseph A. Almagno to serve as the City Council's representative on that Committee.

Mr. Almagno is, I am sure, known to you all as a dedicated public servant with extensive experience in the area of personnel. He has been involved in the School Department's affirmative action efforts. I have enclosed a copy of his resume for your information.

Sincerely,

Louis R. Stravato

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR OF THE
CITY OF PROVIDENCE

JOSEPH R. PAOLINO, JR.
MAYOR

JULY 9, 1984

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 12

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION REVIEW COMMITTEE

WHEREAS, affirmative action and equal employment opportunity are of vital concern to the women and minority citizens of the City of Providence; and

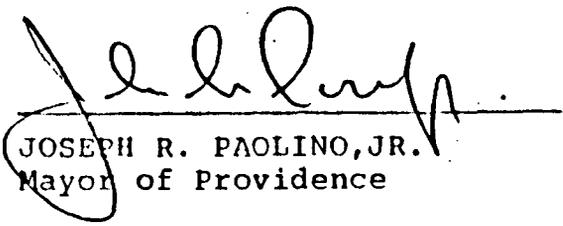

WHEREAS, all the citizens of the City of Providence will benefit from a comprehensive, effective affirmative action program that establishes realistic goals to which the Administration can commit itself;

NOW THEREFORE, by the powers vested in me as Mayor of the City of Providence, pursuant to Section 302(h) of the Providence Home Rule Charter of 1980, there is hereby established an Affirmative Action Review Committee for the purpose of evaluating the City's Affirmative Action Program.

Said committee shall be composed of one(1) member designated by the President of the City Council; one(1) member designated by a labor union representing city employees, such union to be chosen by the Mayor; and one(1) member designated by the Mayor.

It shall be the duty of said committee to review the City's Affirmative Action Program, and to recommend appropriate changes that reflect a firm commitment to increase minority and female participation in city government, and a philosophy of sound fiscal management and professionalism.

Said committee shall report its findings to the Mayor no later than August 31, 1984.

JOSEPH R. PAOLINO, JR.
Mayor of Providence
