Re: Veto of Proposed Changes to Home Rule Charter

Honorable Members of the City Council:

On July 22, I received the attached letter from the City Solicitor. Under the circumstances, I have no choice but to veto the Resolution regarding changes to the Providence Home Rule Charter.

Very truly yours,

Re: Veto of Proposed Changes to Home Rule Charter

Dear Mayor:

On July 15, in my absence, the Council passed a Resolution which would place on the ballot, for consideration at the November general election, two changes to the Providence Home Rule Charter. This was a final action, as I determined when the Council papers were submitted to my office for review on Tuesday. Unfortunately, passage of the Resolution violated the Providence Home Rule Charter ("HRC") and is therefore null and void.

HRC Section 411(f) states:

"The city council shall not take final action on the following types of legislation without a public hearing, which shall be held not less than ten (10) days following notice published in a newspaper circulated generally in the City of Providence: * * * (f) Proposed Charter amendments or changes."

I have notified the Majority Leader of this fatal defect. However, in an abundance of caution, I recommend that you veto the proposed changes to the Providence HRC.

Very truly yours,
