PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

COUNCILWOMAN YOUNG requests to speak on a Point of Personal Privilege and states:

"Mr. President, over the past three weeks, I have been receiving mail sent to my home and addressed to the following: Balbina Spook, Balbina Honkie, Balbina Bigbutt and Balbina Ho.

"This is the work of sick people with small minds who are also racist and cowardly. Who do you know who fits this profile? Only one person and I am personally charging the head of the Firefighters Union, Steven Day and some of his fanatical hooligans, not all firefighters, with sending me this hate mail.

"We all saw and heard their behavior at our Council Meetings, coming into our City Hall and getting paid with Taxpayers Money and harassing us and behaving in a way that was described as violent. These people are getting paid $50,000.00 a year plus, to act like idiots. If this is what Unions are all about, then we can do without them.

"I will continue to work on behalf of the people of the 11th Ward and speak out about everything that concerns them and their tax dollars, including the Fat Cat Fire Department Disability Pension Scam and any other ripoffs. May I suggest that the next application Steven Day and his band of fanatical hooligans fill out would be for voluntary commitment to the I.M.H.

"I also am asking the United States Attorney General, Lincoln Almond, and the United States Postal Service to look into criminal charges on the State and Federal Level and also violations of the Civil Rights Act.

"I do not believe that any elected official or human being should be subjected to racism, bigotry or hate mail.

"As I said on the radio talk show several weeks ago, any person coming into a neighborhood in the middle of the night to put up signs reminds me of the same type of cowards that years ago would come with white sheets and the things that they did under the cover of the white sheet.

"By sending this racist mail, to me, absolutely proves my point and my analogy to what the firefighters did during the dead of night by putting up those signs, to the white sheets and they don't even have the nerve to tell me this to my face, so they send this through the mail. My kids have seen this too and I resent that more than anything else.

"I thank you for your indulgence."

COUNCILMAN CLARKIN informs that he has also received his share of hate mail and is on a mailing list of some sort and has received books and has sent most of them back, and "I believe the whole City Council is strong enough to stand up to this kind of abuse and I have no problem with these small minds, it doesn't bother me."

COUNCILWOMAN NOLAN requests to speak on a Point of Personal Privilege and states:

"Mr. President, during the recent budget negotiations, I too have received hate mail. During the recent election I joined in taking down the signs, near a fire station, I was surrounded by two big cars and they were proceeding to yell out all kinds of disparaging remarks including references to Councilwoman Balbina Young.

"This is the kind of thing we will not put up with."

(She refers to an incident involving the response time by the Police Department in her neighborhood which resulted in a verbal assault on herself.)

COUNCILMAN FENTON requests to speak on a Point of Personal Privilege and states:

"Mr. President, I guess you can add myself to the list of people who have received hate mail and this is truly a violation of Federal Law. I feel strongly that the Council should solicit the Postmaster General's Office as well as the United States Attorney's Office to look into this matter. It is despicable and I think we see what is going on now with New Jersey and other cities. The hatred that is going on there and the hatred that is going on even closer to here. It is a clear attempt for intimidation for us and it shows that none of us are immune to it. We all are potential victims of it. I also have received a letter addressed to my home with a disparaging word substituted for my surname. I didn't open the envelope.

"There is a great deal of sacrifice for one to serve on this Council. Time away from family, time away from friends, for not a great deal of monetary compensation. We all understand that and it is a privilege. But, certainly, this type of abuse goes way beyond the realms of public debate on an issue. Beyond the realm of what is acceptable. It is clearly wrong and goes against democracy and is intentional and racial and another attempt to intimidate people because of their beliefs.

"I honestly think and hope that the Federal Authorities take the strongest actions possible to pursue this matter, whether they are to subpoena phone records from individuals or whatever else is necessary, to track down whoever did this. I don't have children and I'm glad I don't right now because I certainly would not want to see one of my young children come home and see remarks like this. To see really the most disgusting type of language that is possible.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

COUNCILMAN DeLUCA states

"Mr. President, I think I have caused as much trouble as any of these people possibly could, I kind of feel left out. I haven't been getting any harassing phone calls or mail. I hate to be left out of anything. Having had a very extensive background in psychology, it sounds to me that this is a person who had difficulty during the "toilet training" era. I think that this information should be turned over to the Attorney General's Office to help us identify him or them.

"Thank you."

list of those who have been harassed. I have received numerous phone calls from someone saying they are from a company requesting information on cesspools. I have received phone calls from different companies soliciting products but using a different last name. But I receive so much mail, I throw half of it away, and I didn't examine it, but I will look more carefully now because I'm very naive. I think everyone is good and honorable. But again, we have to be tough and we have to really take action against this type of intimidation.

"Thank you."

COUNCILWOMAN WILLIAMS:

"I guess I would have to add my name to the
