WILLIAM J. DANIELSON — GEORGE W. DANIELSON

DANIELSON & SON

Newspaper Advertising

AND SUBSCRIPTION AGENTS

No. 96 Westminster St., Providence, R. I.

Judicious Advertising Promotes Trade.

William J. Danielson, for more than twenty years connected with the "Providence Journal," established in 1886 a General Newspaper Advertising and Subscription Agency, in the Lyceum Building, No. 96 Westminster Street.

Seventeen Years' Experience as a General Newspaper Advertising Agent has afforded him ample opportunities to observe the waste caused by injudicious methods of advertising and enables him to suggest the best mediums and to offer practical advice and assistance in so placing advertisements that the Advertiser MAY REAP the best results from the money expended.

In 1900 Mr. Danielson admitted his son George W., who has had nine years of thoroughly practical experience in the various departments, to a partnership in the business.

Advertisements and Subscriptions received for ALL THE LEADING Newspapers and Magazines at Low Rates. Special attention given to "locals" or reading notices in the Providence Papers.

Libraries, Societies or Individuals requiring any considerable number of Newspapers and Periodicals will find it to their advantage to send for terms.

Estimates for any amount of advertising and information as to the best mediums cheerfully furnished.

Imperial Concert Band

76 DORRANCE STREET.

SIG. ANTONIO MUSCENTE, Director.

That Providence contains some clever band men has been proven upon repeated occasions of greater or less importance. Last night a concert was given by the new Imperial Band under the leadership of Prof. A. Muscente, at the Providence Opera House, which imparted fresh emphasis to this fact and at the same time afforded a very large audience reason for a remarkable exhibition of genuine enthusiasm. This band is made up of players who know how to handle their instruments skilfully and who are fortunate in having a leader of the ability and experience of Sig. Antonio Muscente. It was this band that was given a tremendous reception in the Italian quarter last summer shortly after its formation. The concert last night was, from beginning to end, an enjoyable affair. In the higher, and airies numbers the band displayed an admirable spirit and animation and produced a tone that was crispiness and daintiness crystalized.—"Providence Telegram," Nov. 17, 1902.

The Imperial Band of this city (Providence, R. I.) is one of the best bands in the country and one of the best bandmasters in Italy, Sig. Antonio Muscente, has been secured to lead this prosperous organization; his popularity is unquestioned.
—"Providence News," Nov. 17, 1902.

The Imperial Band of this city plays with wonderful effect, and the leadership of Sig. Muscente is of the best material.—"Providence Evening Bulletin," Oct. 20, 1902.

In the presence of a large audience the Imperial Band of Providence, R. I., A. Muscente, leader, gave an excellent concert in the Auditorium last night. For a new organization it appears with excellent advantage and its members were received with much favor.—"Providence Daily Journal," Oct. 20, 1902.

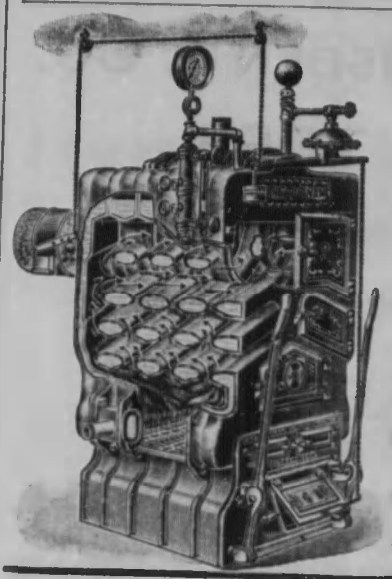
D. G. PRATT

EXPERT SELECTOR OF SUPERIOR CARRIAGE HORSES

And undeveloped and partially developed Trotters and Pacers from yearlings to horses of mature age.

I have picked 47 trotters and pacers without a single mistake from unbroken colts, jogged to halter and jogging in pasture, and horses trotting bred working on the farms, and horses in their partially developed form, and when trained they paced and trotted from ¼ of a second to 6 seconds of my prediction. They paced and trotted in 2.10 to 2.35 over ½ mile country tracks, trained only by average country trainers.



Men have made from $500 to $2000 by developing the speed of a prospective trotter I advised them to buy, and selling him, exclusive of any racing.

I CARRY NO HORSES IN STOCK BUT BUY ON COMMISSION FOR CUSTOMERS.

COMBINED WITH A COOL AIR CIRCULATING REFRIGERATOR

Fully Fifty Per Cent of a saving, that is, taking into consideration the convenience of more room for refrigerator shelf space, with less ice and better preservation through the process of nature and the sun-lit air. It is impossible for this refrigerator to become foul as it is strictly a self-cleaning apparatus.

TESTIMONIALS

A Few Words from Prominent Business Men who are using This Refrigerator.

NEW ENGLAND THREAD COMPANY, Pawtucket, R. I., Dec. 16, 1901.

John Hyde, Jr., 73 Carpenter Street, City.

Dear Sir—I have had one of your Refrigerators in my house now for over a year, and find it to be the most useful adjunct to my house. It is a very great improvement over the so-called "Improved Refrigerators" and works perfectly, responding to the water pressure at the least turn of the faucet. The Water-Cooler attached is also a great convenience, and on the whole, I could hardly get along without this refrigerator. I am, yours very truly,

HENRY A. WARBURTON.

Office of INSPECTOR OF BUILDINGS Pawtucket, R. I., April 6, 1903.

Mr. John Hyde, Jr.

Dear Sir—I wish to congratulate you on the perfection and completeness of your patent refrigerator. I have carefully examined it in detail and pronounce it a luxurious necessity. Its economy of ice consumption, its absolute cleanliness, its simplicity of operation, certainly make it an article to be desired by all. It has but to be seen to be appreciated.

Respectfully, S. MASON, Inspector of Buildings.

SLATER COTTON COMPANY, Pawtucket, R. I., Dec. 12, 1901.

John Hyde, Jr., Esq.

Dear Sir—Will say in regard to inquiry made that the refrigerator is working very satisfactorily and am very much pleased with it. Yours truly, V. T. BARBER.
