M.S.W. Simmons College School of Social Work, Boston, Ma.; 1966

A.B. Political Science, Brown University, Providence, R.I.; 1964

EXPERIENCE:

Facilitator - Northern Rhode Island Chamber of Commerce --
Business/Education Committee, Spring 1991

Ms. Bleecker has facilitated brain storming sessions for members of the Committee in order that they can identify common ground for collaboration on a future agenda.

Court Annexed Mediation, Brookline Mental Health Clinic,
Brookline, Ma.; Mediator, 1988 to 1990

Ms. Bleecker has mediated a variety of family and community disputes for this Court and Clinic sponsored mediation program. Ms. Bleecker has also helped to train new mediators for the program by co-mediating with new trainees.

Better Business Bureau of R.I., Warwick, R.I.
Arbitration Training, 1989

Cranston School System, Cranston, R.I.; Coordinator of Social Work Services; 1988 to Present

Ms. Bleecker's role as coordinator is multi-faceted. She serves as liaison to the other professional school staff as well as to the larger community. In doing so, she negotiates a variety of issues for her staff such as job responsibilities and working conditions. Ms. Bleecker prepares and defends staff budget requests. She interviews perspective staff and supervises and evaluates the present social work staff. Ms. Bleecker designs and facilitates special programs such as parent education workshops including negotiation skills training. Ms. Bleecker has also taught suicide prevention and crisis intervention workshops. Ms. Bleecker combines this role as Coordinator with her staff school social work position described below.

Cranston School System, Cranston, R.I.; School Social Worker; 1979 to Present.

Ms. Bleecker is responsible for social history evaluations of students in two schools and for coordination of the results of those evaluations with the Multi-Disciplinary Teams. She also provides counseling to at-risk families and/or students; does parent-child mediation; group counseling; and provides consultation to teachers and administrators especially as regards conflicts between school and parents. Ms. Bleecker also chairs the Psychiatric Team, which is responsible for the assessment of children with emotional and behavioral problems and for program planning for these children. As Chairperson, Ms. Bleecker is available to help resolve conflicting opinion among Team members or between parents and school over Team recommendations.

Family Service of Rhode Island, Providence, R.I.; Social Worker, 1978 to 1979.

Ms. Bleecker's responsibilities included a regular counseling caseload as well as coordination of a foster care program for two special needs siblings. In this program Ms. Bleecker provided case work services to the children, the foster parents, and to the natural parents. She was also responsible for resolving conflict between the natural and the foster parents as well as between the parents and the agency..

Pawtucket Community Mental Health Clinic, Pawtucket, R.I.; Psychiatric Social Worker, 1968 to 1978

Ms. Bleecker's responsibilities included evaluation and treatment of adult and adolescents seeking mental health counseling. Ms. Bleecker worked with these clients in a variety of modalities including individual, group, marital, and family therapy. Crisis intervention counseling was also provided. Consultation was provided to the Pawtucket Schools as well as to other appropriate community agencies.
