CHAPTER 1155

No. 567 AN ORDINANCE IN AMENDMENT OF CHAPTER 8 OF THE REVISED ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF PROVIDENCE, 1946, ENTITLED "CITY PLAN COMMISSION."

Approved November 8, 1957

Be it ordained by the City of Providence:

SECTION 1. Chapter 8 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Providence, 1946, entitled "City Plan Commission" is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 1. How constituted.

"There shall be a city plan commission for the city consisting of the mayor, ex officio, five persons to be appointed by the mayor from citizens of the city who hold no salaried official positions in or under the city government, and who are interested in and have special qualifications for the work pertaining to city planning, and two members of the city council who shall be elected by said city council, to serve on said commission during their respective terms of office. In January of each year hereafter the Mayor shall appoint some qualified person to succeed the member whose term then expires and said appointee shall thereafter hold office for the term of five years.

"All members appointed by the mayor shall serve until their respective successors shall have been appointed and shall have qualified and the appointments shall be approved by the city council.

"Sec. 2. Vacancies.

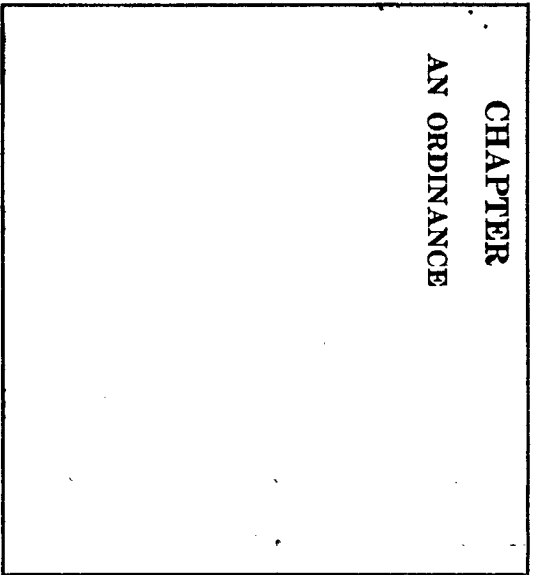

"Any vacancy occurring among the members of the commission shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the original appointment or election.

"Sec. 3. Organization.

"As soon as practicable after each annual appointment the commission shall organize by electing from its own members a chairman, a vice chairman and a secretary.

"Sec. 4. Service without compensation.

"No member of the commission shall receive any compensation as such member or for any services rendered by the commission.

"Sec. 5. General powers.

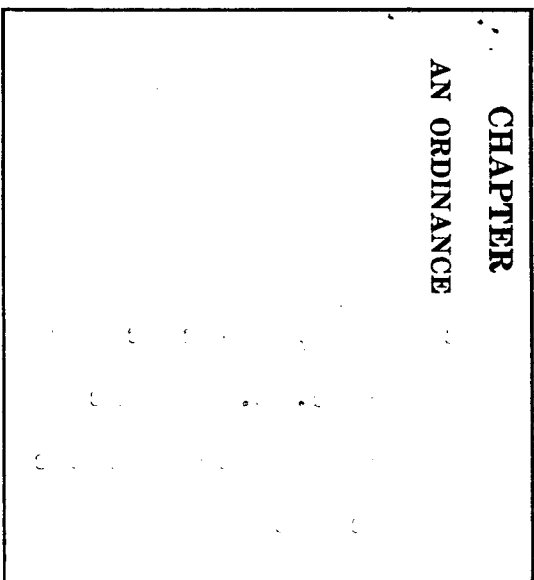

"Said commission shall have the following powers and duties: It shall make careful studies of the construction, resources, possibilities and needs of the city with reference to its future and progressive development and particularly shall investigate and consider as to any present or pending civic problems involving the physical construction, arrangement or equipment of the city; and causes and prevention of congestion of population, habitation or travel in the city; the causes and prevention of slum districts and the improvement of any districts in the city which are run down or decreasing in value; the public health or sanitary condition of the city or any public means or facilities for promoting the public health, comfort or welfare.

"Sec. 6. General plan; opinion as to development of area outside city.

"The commission shall make and adopt a general plan for the development and improvement of the city, and as a means toward that end it may also record its opinion as to the development of any area outside the city which in the judgment of the commission bears relation to the planning of the city. Before the adoption of any general plan or portions thereof or amendments thereto the commission may hold a public hearing thereon, and shall hold such public hearing upon the filing in the office of the City Clerk of a petition for such public hearing signed by at least fifteen citizens of the City. Notice of the pending adoption of any such plan or amendment on which the commission does not plan to hold a hearing on its own motion shall be published at least twice in a newspaper of general circulation in the City, the last such publication to take place at least ten days before the date set for the adoption of such plan. Any petition for public hearing shall be filed in the office of the City Clerk at least three days before the date set for the adoption of such plan. When a public hearing is requested by petition, the commission shall not adopt such plan or amendment until after such public hearing thereon.

"Sec. 7. Plans for specific improvements.

"The commission shall also make plans and proposals for specific improvements and projects which it deems desirable for the city and its surrounding area, and recommend them to the appropriate authority. Such plans and proposals shall not become a part of the general plan until adopted as such.

"Sec. 8. Assistance from and cooperation with other departments.

"The commission shall have authority to call upon other departments of the city for assistance in city planning and shall cooperate with such other departments and with any commission or committee having charge of the investigation of any special matter referred to it by the city council.

"Sec. 9. Cooperation with finance director.

"The commission shall collaborate with the finance director in the preparation and recommendation to the mayor and the city council, on or before June 1st each year, of a capital improvement budget for the following year and a comprehensive five-year capital improvement program.

"Sec. 10. Investigations; maps and studies, distribution and copies of plans and studies.

"The commission shall have authority to make such investigations, maps and studies relating to the planning of the community as it may deem desirable. All plans and reports of the commission shall be first submitted to the city council. The commission shall thereafter have authority to publish and distribute copies of plans and reports for the purpose of promoting public interest in and understanding of its plans and reports.

"Sec. 11. City plan director.

"The commission shall appoint a city plan director for such term as it may deem desirable, and shall appoint such other assistants and employees as it may deem necessary. The city plan director shall have had before his appointment not less than five years' experience in city planning.

"Sec. 12. Appointment of employees.

"All employees shall be appointed by the commission in accordance with the provisions of chapter 760 of the ordinances of 1953 and chapters 1144 and 1145 of the ordinances of 1957, as heretofore or hereafter amended.

"Sec. 13. Employing outside consultants.

"The commission may also employ outside consultants and incur any expense necessary therefor, but it shall not for any purpose contract for the payment of any sum of money or incur any expense greater than the amount then appropriated or available therefor.

"Sec. 14. Meetings.

"Regular meetings of the commission shall be held at least monthly, on such day as the commission may determine, and special meetings may be held at any time at the call of the chairman and shall be called by the chairman upon the written request of three members.

"Sec. 15. Adoption of rules.

"The commission shall adopt rules for the transaction of business.

"Sec. 16. Ordinances and resolutions affecting planning to be submitted to commission.

"All proposed ordinances or resolutions of the city council which affect the city plan or concern the plan, design, character, extent, location or use of any public improvement or public property or change thereof, or concern zoning or other regulations affecting or controlling the use or development of land or otherwise coming within the functions of the commission as set forth in this chapter, and all maps, plans or charts required to be submitted to the city council under the provisions of Chapter 987 of the Public Laws of 1913, before final passage thereof shall be submitted to the commission for report and recommendation. If the commission shall fail to act within twenty-five days, it shall be deemed to have approved such matter. The mayor, members or committees of the city council or department heads of the city may submit a proposed ordinance or resolution to the commission prior to the introduction thereof in the council, and if such proposed ordinance or resolution shall be acted on by the commission prior to such introduction, it need not thereafter be referred back to the commission. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in any way to limit, restrict or prevent the city council from taking action on any ordinance or resolution contrary or adverse to the report or recommendation of the city plan commission."

SEC. 2. This Ordinance shall take effect upon its passage and all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 660

Approved November 8, 1957

Whereas, the Detective Division of the Police Department working as a tireless and methodical team did apprehend, within a matter of hours, the alleged murderer who confessed of the crime for which he was later charged and

WHEREAS, the diligence with which the municipal law enforcement agents worked is further attestation of their training and ability to conduct their responsibilities in a manner that has brought and will continue to bring the highest credit to the administration of the Department as a whole and to the Detective Division in particular

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the commendation of the citizens of the City of Providence by the medium of this Resolution of their elected representatives in the City Council be and is extended to Commander Walter E. Stone and the members of the Detective Division of the Providence Police Department for their efforts in once again serving notice upon those intent on criminal ventures that the administration of the City of Providence will rally to the protection of its citizens and the enforcement of the law

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the Commissioner of Public Safety John B. Dunn, and the Commander of the Detective Division Walter E. Stone.
