

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 484

Approved August 15, 1994

WHEREAS, Duffy Dwyer known to all of us a "The Phantom Friar" began this identity in 1986 at the Big East Tournament in Madison Square Garden, and

WHEREAS, "The Phantom Friar" became known to all of New England and most of the College Basketball World as the unofficial PC Mascot, and

WHEREAS, Duffy Dwyer is one of those people who is impossible not to like, a big, warm-hearted man with the special ability to make everyone around him feel a little better, and

WHEREAS, His knack of making people feel better began years ago, when he used to put on a Santa Claus outfit and visit everyone's nieces and nephews and read to the kids in the neighborhood, and

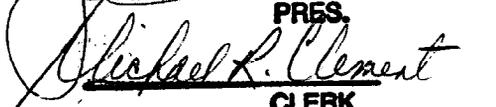

WHEREAS, During his tenure as "The Phantom Friar" while getting the PC Basketball fans revved up during games, home and away, it was unbeknownst to him that he would one day win a National Contest as "America's Nuttiest Sports Nut" and

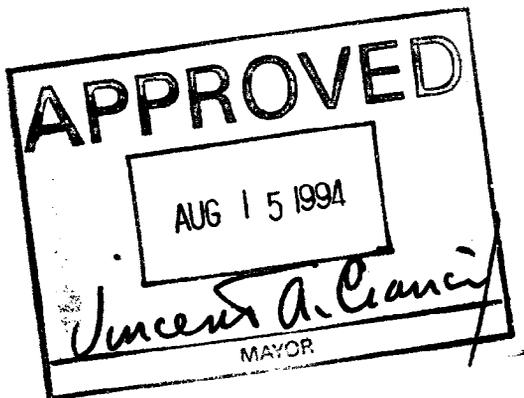

WHEREAS, Duffy has had a medical set back and some of his friends are planning an Appreciation Day on Saturday, August 6, 1994 at the Peterson Recreation Center on the PC Campus, and

WHEREAS, All those people he got to stand up in the Civic Center and rally around PC should now rally around Duffy Dwyer "The Phantom Friar",

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Members of Providence City Council do hereby rally around Duffy by wishing him all the best and happiness.

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 486

Approved August 15, 1994

WHEREAS, The values of sacrificial love and integrity are fundamental in developing the moral character essential to maintaining a strong Nation, and

WHEREAS, Parents by their example of sacrificial love and the transmission of moral and cultural values play a crucial and determinant role in the development of youth, and

WHEREAS, Time has demonstrated that the traditional American family is the most stable and secure environment in which parents can successfully rear future generations, and

WHEREAS, The current breakdown of the traditional American family is a major factor contributing to the rise of crime, teen pregnancy, educational failure, substance abuse, and suicide among our Nation's youth, and

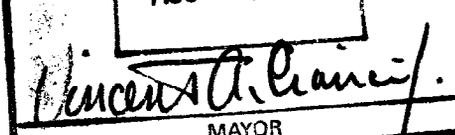

WHEREAS, It is in the interest of Society and Government to adopt policies that help families stay together by strengthening and sustaining fathers and mothers in fulfilling their parental roles,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That on Parents Day, July 28, 1994, all private citizens, organizations and Governmental and Legislative bodies at the Local, State and Federal Level, are encouraged to recognize this day through Proclamations, activities and educational efforts in the furtherance of recognizing, uplifting and supporting the role of parents in the rearing of their children.
