CHAPTER 1201

No. 210 AN ORDINANCE RELATING TO THE REQUIREMENTS FOR EXISTING BUILDINGS BEING USED FOR THE BOARDING, LODGING
OR NURSING CARE OF CONVALESCENTS AND OTHERS.

Approved May 2, 1958

Be it ordained by the City of Providence:

SECTION 1: After six (6) months from the enactment hereof, no person, firm or corporation shall operate a convalescent home, nursing home, home for aged persons, home for the boarding of seven (7) or more children, or home for mental patients above the first floor of a wood frame building, provided that in wood frame buildings protected by an approved automatic sprinkler system and occupied for no other purpose, and otherwise complying with the provisions hereof, the second floor may be used for such occupancy and further provided that the second floor of wood frame buildings which are legally being used for said purposes presently, may continue to be so used until December 31, 1963, upon the following conditions:

1. Said premises shall be occupied for no other purpose.
2. Said premises shall be protected by a fire detection and alarm system approved by the Chief of the Fire Department.
3. Said premises and fire alarm and detection system shall be connected directly with the fire alarm headquarters of the Fire Department.
4. Said second floor shall be occupied by no more than six (6) persons, all of whom shall be ambulatory.
5. Strict compliance with the other provisions of the within Ordinance shall be had.

SEC. 2: All heat shall be supplied from a central heating plant, to be maintained in good operating condition. A boiler or heater room shall be separated from all other areas by walls and ceiling having a fire resistance rating of at least one (1) hour, and all openings between such rooms and other areas shall be protected by automatic or self-closing fire doors.

SEC. 3: All hallways, passageways or exitways on floors occupied by patients in such buildings shall be illuminated at all times, and all exits shall be suitably marked.

The electrical circuit supplying power for lights in said hallways, passageways and exitways, shall be independent of all other lighting circuits.

SEC. 4: Dumb-waiters and laundry chutes shall be enclosed by an approved material having a fire resistance rating of at least two (2) hours. All openings to such dumb-waiters and laundry chutes shall be protected by an approved self-closing fire door.

SEC. 5: Hoists in such installations shall consist of metal cable, the use of rope being prohibited.

SEC. 6: Hallways, passageways and exitways shall be kept clear of all obstructions.

SEC. 7: Storage of mattresses and unused furniture must be in a room separated from the heating plant. Storage of more equipment than necessary for the operation of said business is forbidden.

SEC. 8: All service closets or compartments used for the storage of cleaning or polishing compounds or implements of an inflammable nature shall be enclosed by material resistant to fire for at least one (1) hour.

SEC. 9: Waste materials and rubbish shall be kept in metal cans with metal covers and removed from the premises daily.

SEC. 10: This Ordinance shall apply only to existing wood-frame buildings presently being used for the purposes set forth in Section 1, and shall not be construed to affect the requirements for new buildings or future occupancies to be used for such purposes.
