COMMUNICATION

Communication from Council President John J. Lombardi, informing the Honorable Members of the City Council that pursuant to Section 1302 of the Providence Home Rule Charter of 1980, he is transmitting the names of Sybil M. Bailey, R. Kelly Sheridan, Esquire, Thomas E. Deller, Anthony Nunez and Gerald P. Carvalho as nominees to the Charter Review Commission.

COUNCILMAN ALLEN moves to substitute the Communication, seconded by COUNCILWOMAN WILLIAMS.

COUNCILMAN IGLIOZZI requests a point of order and states:

That this does not have to do with the discussion of the particular individuals, but has to do with the procedure of Section 1302. As we are all aware of, these members the way the Charter states, says that "... each commission shall comprise of nine members, four of whom shall be appointed by the Mayor and five of whom shall be appointed by the City Council..." The appropriate procedure would be for the City Council to be notifying the public for the next meeting that there is going to be a public meeting for open nominations to appoint the people of the City Charter Review Commission. We are not following the appropriate process, so I just ask that... you are probably going to have withdraw these letters, or you can maintain them, but if you act upon them then these individuals would be null and void as appointees because it is not the City Council President's unilateral authority, it is a Council as a Whole appointment. We could ask the City Solicitor to do a point of clarification so we can do it the correct way and then all of the council members at that meeting would have an opportunity to submit their own individuals if they wanted to for nominations, seconds, etc. So before we go back to what happened almost four years ago with the judges, let's try to do it the right way this time. I just ask the City Solicitor to clarify that.

CITY SOLICITOR DETORRE states that:

He has looked at Section 1302, and the language is "... shall be appointed by the City Council..." What is before you appears to be an appointment from the Council President. In my opinion what should have been on the docket was the issue of the appointment of five members of a Charter Review Commission, at which time the members of the City Council could submit names and then a vote would be taken as to five people to serve on that particular committee. As you recall, I was also present on the night of the selection of the members of the redistricting, or the ward line committee, and if you looked at what happened ten years ago, somehow they erroneously put four democrats on that particular commission and I brought it to the attention of the members of the council prior to the meeting and the council went ahead and placed three from one party and two who were not members of the majority party. Because it was done in this particular fashion 10 years ago doesn't mean that it was correct then. Perhaps the question didn't arise at that time, but in my opinion what should have been on the docket tonight was the appointment of five members of the Charter Commission, not an appointment listing names, just the issue of the appointment of the Charter Commission and then the members of the council could submit names at that meeting. I think what you should do is withdraw what is on here this evening, and place on the next docket the issue of the appointment of five members to the Charter Committee who are appointed by the City Council.

COUNCILMAN ALLEN moves to vote on whether or not the nominations should be voted on, seconded by COUNCILWOMAN WILLIAMS, and is put to vote by the following Roll Call Vote:

Ayes: Council President Lombardi, Councilmen Allen, Aponte, Clarkin, Jackson, Councilwomen Williams and Young—7.
