To Whom It May Concern,

Please accept this letter as formal notification that I am resigning from my position as a Commissioner of the Providence Human Relations Commission, effective immediately.

I joined the Commission with the intention to contribute meaningfully to policies and practices that elevate Providence's diverse cultural communities and support civil rights. Over the last 21 months, I've been honored to share space with community activists and leaders fighting for a more equitable reality here in our great city. I've unfortunately been greatly discouraged by the lack of progress the group has made since joining the Commission. My hope is that stronger leadership and more intentional strategic planning may position the Commission to most effectively execute on their goals and initiatives.

Thank you for the opportunity.

Sincerely,

Madalyn Ciampi
